WILLIAM O. DeWITT JR.

PRINCIPAL OWNER AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Bill DeWitt Jr. has served as the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Cardinals since 1996, when he led the purchase of the team from Anheuser Busch. DeWitt oversees all baseball, operational, financial and league matters for the team. He is Chairman of the Major League Baseball Executive Council, a member of the Board of Major League Baseball Advanced Media, the Government Relations Committee and the Labor Policy Committee. During 2014, he served as Chairman of the Commissioner's Succession Committee. Mr. DeWitt also serves on the board of the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

DeWitt, a native St. Louisan, is a graduate of St. Louis Country Day School, received his B.A. Degree in economics from Yale University in 1963, and M.B.A. Degree from Harvard Business School in 1965. As the son of former baseball executive and team owner William O. DeWitt and Margaret H. DeWitt, he has deep roots in baseball dating back to his childhood. Mr. DeWitt's father began his career with the Cardinals in 1916 and worked in a variety of executive positions under Branch Rickey until the early 1940s when he joined the St. Louis Browns as General Manager. He was twice named Executive of the Year, was sole owner of the Cincinnati Reds from 1961-67 and majority owner of the Browns from 1949-51 when Bill, Jr. served as the team's bat boy. His uniform (number 1/8) was worn by Eddie Gaedel during his famous pinch hitting appearance on August 19, 1951.

DeWitt, Jr. has been a prior owner of the Baltimore Orioles, Cincinnati Reds and Texas Rangers. He was also a shareholder of the Cincinnati Bengals Football Team and the Cincinnati Stingers Hockey Team, and has had a long career in private equity with Reynolds DeWitt & Co. and DeWitt Capital Group. He is married to the former Katharine Cramer of St. Louis, and they have four grown children: Katie, Bill, Andrew, and Margot, and 12 grandchildren.

Under his leadership, the Cardinals have had a number of significant achievements, including the following:

- Opened a new spring training facility in Jupiter, Fla., in 1998.
- Purchased the Palm Beach Cardinals of the Florida State League (A) in 1998.
- Purchased the Springfield Cardinals of the Texas League (AA) in 2005 and opened the new Hammonds Field in Springfield, Mo.
- Privately financed, built, and opened the new Busch Stadium in April, 2006.
- Hosted Major League Baseball's 2009 All-Star Game.
- Developed special events business highlighted by concerts by Dave Mathews, the Eagles, and U2; and international soccer matches.
- Surpassed 3 million in attendance 16 times since 1996.
- Won 10 Division Titles (1996, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2009, 2013, 2014), two Wild Cards (2011, 2012), four National League Pennants (2004, 2006, 2011, 2013) and two World Championships (2006, 2011).
- Won 70 postseason games - most amongst all National League teams since 1996.
- Opened Ballpark Village, March 2014.
- Purchased the Memphis Redbirds of the Pacific Coast League (AAA), March 2014.

WILLIAM DeWITT, III
PRESIDENT

Bill DeWitt III was named President of the St. Louis Cardinals in March 2008. In his role as team President, DeWitt oversees all aspects of the business of the team and its affiliated entities, which include the Memphis Redbirds, Springfield Cardinals, Palm Beach Cardinals, and Ballpark Village. He led the effort on the development of Ballpark Village, a 100,000 square-foot retail/entertainment project adjacent to Busch Stadium.

Prior to his appointment as team President, DeWitt was Sr. Vice President of Business Development with the Cardinals and oversaw the design and construction of the new Busch Stadium, which opened in April, 2006. Prior to that, he was involved in several merchandising, marketing, and operational projects for the team. DeWitt was also involved in the planning for Roger Dean Stadium in Jupiter, Florida, where the Cardinals conduct Spring Training and host a Florida State League team, the Palm Beach Cardinals.

DeWitt, 46, graduated cum laude from the Taft School in 1986 and went on to graduate cum laude from Yale University in 1990. He then served as an assistant to William Reilly, head of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency in Washington D.C. for three years. He then attended Harvard Business School, earning his MBA in 1995.

DeWitt is chairman of the Board of Cardinals Care and also sits on the boards of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Eastern Missouri (recent board chair), the St. Louis Sports Commission, the RCGA, City Arch River and the Muny. He was formerly a trustee of the Taft School in Watertown, Conn., and board chair for Emergency Children's Home (ECHO) in St. Louis.

DeWitt and his wife, Ira, live in St. Louis with their two children - daughter Natalie (16) and son, Will (13). Bill is an avid golfer and ice hockey player.

JOHN MOZELIAK

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT / GENERAL MANAGER

John "Mo" Mozeliak was named the Cardinals Senior Vice President and General Manager in October, 2007, and enters his eighth season in that role. Mozeliak received a contract extension through 2018 in April, 2014. He was promoted from his position of Assistant General Manager – a post he had held for six seasons – and he is the 12th general manager in the over 100-year history of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Mozeliak oversighted a 2014 team that won the National League Central Division for a second-straight season and played the eventual World Series Champions in the National League Championship. The success of the 2014 team gave the St. Louis Cardinals a spot in the postseason for a fourth-straight season, the first time in team history the club had reached the playoffs in four consecutive seasons.

The four-year run began in 2011 when Mozeliak engineered a series of late season moves credited with helping transform the Cardinals into a team that came from 10 ½ games back in late August to win the franchise's 11th World Championship. Baseball America named the Cardinals as their 2011 Organization of the Year, a prestigious honor, awarded to the Cardinals for the first time and recognized that the team's big league success was built upon a strong foundation from their minor leagues. Mo was the 2011 recipient of the MLB.com GIBBY (Greatness in Baseball Yearly) Executive of the Year award and he was named, along with Tony La Russa, as the 2011 Baseball Man of the Year by the St. Louis Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

In 2012, the Cardinals fell just one win shy of capturing the N.L. Championship, and with the team's success, Mo was honored by the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum with the Andrew "Rube" Foster Award as Executive of the Year. The 2013 team won the National League Championship and returned to the World Series just two years removed from winning the World Series title in 2011. Led by several rookies that stepped up to provide key contributions throughout the season, the team won the National League Central title and led the N.L. in wins. Following the season the organization was recognized by Baseball America as the Organization of the Year - the second such honor in three years. The team was also honored by USA Today Sports as having the best franchise among Major League baseball teams.

A consistant culture of retaining key players has resulted in several significant deals aimed at keeping the organization's top talent in St. Louis. During the 2014-15 off-season, the club worked out a three-year deal with Lance Lynn, a pitcher who ranks among Major League Baseball's top pitchers in several categories the past three seasons. In March of 2014 he completed a six-year contract extension with All-Star infielder Matt Carpenter, a year following a multi-year deal with ace Adam Wainwright. March of 2012 saw the completion of a deal with catcher Yadier Molina that ensures one of the best catchers in the game remains in a Cardinals uniform through at least 2017. Mo also orchestrated the largest player contract in team franchise history in January 2010, signing Matt Holliday to a seven-year deal with an option for 2017.

Mozeliak, 46, is a 20-year veteran of the Cardinals front office, having joined the organization following the 1995 season where he initially served as an assistant in scouting operations during both the 1996 and 1997 seasons. Mo was named assistant scouting director in 1998 and was promoted to scouting director during 1999 and 2000. Several notable players came out of the draft classes of '99 and 2000 under Mo's direction, most notably first baseman and perennial All-Star Albert Pujols who was drafted in the 13th round of the 1999 draft, as well as catcher Yadier Molina.

In 2001, Mozeliak was named Director of Baseball Operations and in 2003 he was promoted to Assistant General Manager. During his time as Assistant GM, Mo's duties increased as he focused more on the Major League Club and professional scouting, while still having direct involvement in both the scouting and player development departments.

Mozeliak began his career in baseball in 1993 with the Colorado Rockies where he worked in a variety of positions in baseball operations. He attended the University of Arizona and the University of Colorado. He currently serves as the National Trustee for the Foundation Fighting Blindness, is an active fund raiser for American Parkinson Disease Association and sits on the Mercy Hospital Foundation. Mozeliak lives in St. Louis with his wife, Julie, daughter, Allyson, and son, Will.

MICHAEL GIRSCH
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Girsch is in his fifrth season as the Cardinals' Assistant General Manager after being appointed to that position in January 2011. In his role, he assists General Manager John Mozeliak with Major League player transactions, contract negotiations and player evaluations and helps oversee all aspects of Baseball Operations including amatuer and pro scouting, player development, international operations and baseball development.

Girsch joined the Cardinals in 2006, starting his career with a two year stint as the Coordinator of Amateur Scouting. In 2008, he was named Director of the newly created Baseball Development department – a group focused on supporting Baseball Operations via internet applications, analytical models and decision support tools. Michael led the Baseball Development department for three years before being promoted to Assistant GM.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Girsch, 38, earned a Bachelor of Science in Mathematics from the University of Notre Dame and an MBA from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business. He and his wife, Kelly, reside in Webster Groves with their four children, twins Addison and Eleanor (10), Claire (8) and Tommy (7).

JOHN VUCH
DIRECTOR, BASEBALL ADMINISTRATION

John Vuch is in his 28th season in Baseball Operations and his 37th overall with the Cardinals. He was named to his current position following the 2013 season and he assists the VP/General Manager in all aspects of the Major League club, including taking the lead on arbitration cases, as well as coordinationg the day to day management of the Professional Scouting Department.

Vuch held the title of Farm Director from September 2010 through the 2012 seasons, and during that time oversaw Championships for three teams [Quad Cities (A) & Johnson City (R) in 2011, Springfield (AA) in 2012]. The two championships in in 2011 marked the first time since 1994 multiple Cardinals minor league affiliates won league championships, and the 2012 Springfield Cardinal team was recognized as the Minor League Team of the Year. Under his leadership, the 2010 Cardinals Minor League system had the highest combined winning percentage of any Major League organization and the Cardinals were recognized as the 2011 Organization of the Year by Baseball America. At the conclustion of the 2012 season, the Cardinals minor league system was ranked #1 by both Baseball Prospectus and Baseball America. He served as Director of Minor League Operations in 2013 and 2007-2010, and was responsible for the daily operations of the Cardinals' farm system including minor league player personnel decisions. He began working for the Cardinals as a "runner" in 1979 and worked in the Sales Department from 1985 to 1987.

Vuch was awarded the Harry Mitauer Good Guy Award by the St. Louis chapter of the Baseball Writer's Association of America at their 51st annual dinner in 2009. A St. Louis native, Vuch graduated from Oakville High School and the University of Missouri-St. Louis with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration. Vuch and his wife, Maria, reside in south St. Louis County with their children Jack (20), Hayley (17) and Anna (14).

MIKE JORGENSEN
SENIOR SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO GENERAL MANAGER

Mike Jorgensen currently serves as a Special Assistant to the General Manager, a position he has held since September 2001. He served as director of player development for 10 seasons (1992-01), and was the team's minor league hitting instructor/coordinator in1990 and 1991.

Upon retiring as a player after the 1985 season, 'Jorgy' was hired as an instructor in the Cardinals' minor league system. Midway through the 1986 season, he was named manager at St. Petersburg and led the team to the Florida State League championship. He managed the Triple-A Louisville Redbirds from 1987-'89. He made his big-league managerial debut following the dismissal of Cardinals skipper Joe Torre on June 16, 1995, and guided the team to a 41-55 mark. While managing the field operations, he also remained in his post as director of player development.

Jorgensen was a lefthanded-hitting first baseman/outfielder during a major league career that spanned 18 seasons. He was selected by the New York Mets in the June 1966 free-agent draft and made his big-league debut in 1968. He was traded to Montreal at the start of the 1972 season, his first of five full seasons with the Expos. He went on to play for Oakland, Texas, the Mets again, Atlanta and St. Louis.

Jorgensen, 66, graduated from Francis Lewis High School in Flushing, N.Y., attended St. John's University and served from 1967-1972 in the United Stated Marine Corps Reserve. He and his wife, Melissa Lee, make their home in St. Louis. Jorgensen and his late wife, Brenda, have three married children; Brian, Kristen and Eric, four grandsons: Eric, Jacob, James and Owen, and two granddaughters: Quinn Ann and Clara Marie.

GARY LaROCQUE
DIRECTOR, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Gary LaRocque was named Director of Player Development prior to the 2014 season and in this role oversees all aspects of player development. LaRocque joined the St. Louis organization in 2008 as Senior Special Assistant to the General Manager and was named Senior Advisor to Player Development prior to the 2013 season.

LaRocque is in his 40th year in professional baseball in player development and scouting. He served in senior management levels for the New York Mets beginning in 1998, as Scouting Director, Assistant General Manager and Vice President / Player Development and Scouting through 2005 and was appointed Vice President of Professional Scouting in 2006.

Before joining the Mets, Gary started his professional playing career as a minor league infielder in 1975 with the Milwaukee Brewers, and began a 19-year career with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1979 as a minor league coach. He began managing in 1981 through 1983 in the Pioneer League and Gulf Coast Rookie Leagues, followed by the Class AA Texas League for four seasons and in 1988 managed in the California League. LaRocque moved into the scouting department in 1989 as area scout and from 1992-1997 was a regional scouting supervisor for the Dodgers.

LaRocque acquired his degree in secondary Education (Mathematics) in 1975 from the University of Hartford, West Hartford, Conn., and was elected to the Athletic Hall of Fame at the University of Hartford in 1993.

CHRIS CORREA
DIRECTOR, SCOUTING

Chris Correa is in his first season as the Director of Scouting after being named to that position in December 2014. In his new role, he will oversee the scouting department including the amateur draft. This will be his seventh season with the club overall.

Correa joined the Cardinals in 2009 working in statistical analysis and was promoted to Manager of Baseball Development in 2012. Following the 2013 season, he was named Director of the growing department. In his baseball development role, Correa led a department that provided statistical analysis and decision support tools to all areas of Baseball Operations. He also previously served as a quantitative analyst and was responsible for developing proprietary analytical models and applications to assist with player personnel decisions at the amateur and professional levels.

Correa, 34, is a native of New Hampshire and earned a Bachelor of Science in Cognitive Science from Hampshire College and a Master of Science in Psychology from the University of Illinois. He was a doctoral candidate at the University of Michigan prior to joining the Cardinals. He and his wife, Lillian, reside in St. Louis.

MOISES RODRIGUEZ
DIRECTOR OF INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS

Moisés Rodriguez will be entering his eighth year with the Cardinals as the Director of International Operations. He is mainly responsible for the organization's amateur scouting effort overseas and supervising the player development and facility operations at the Cardinals Dominican Republic Academy. During his tenure, the international scouting department has identified prospects such as pitcher Carlos Martinez, the late Oscar Taveras, top prospect Alex Reyes, and outfielder Magneuris Sierra, the 2014 organizational player of the year. This spring under his supervision, the Cardinals will move into a newly built player development academy in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Rodriguez worked for Major League Baseball in New York from 1998-2007, the last three-plus years as Manager of International Baseball Operations in the Commissioner's Office. During his tenure in the Commissioner's Office, he also specialized in the day-to-day handling of the waiver wire and rule enforcement related to clubs' Major and Minor League player movement transactions. His first position at MLB was in 1998 as an assistant in Media Relations and waivers for the National League office. He began his work in sports as an Assistant Director of Sports Information at the University of Connecticut.

Rodriguez, 41, was born in Hato Rey, Puerto Rico, before moving to New York City. He received a communications degree from the University of Connecticut. He and his wife, Michelle, reside in Jupiter, Fla., with their two sons: Moisés Angel (6) and Christian (2).

MATT SLATER
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Slater joined the Cardinals organization in 2007 and was named Director of Player Personnel in January 2012. He is in his 25th year in Major League Baseball where over the course of his career, he has helped build division winners and playoff teams in Baltimore, Los Angeles and St. Louis. In his current role as senior talent evaluator, Slater works hand in hand with the General Manager in all player acquisitions including Major League, minor league, amateur draft and international talent. Furthermore, he aids in contract negotiations and roster composition. For the past nine years, Matt has served as a consultant to the Orix Buffaloes Baseball Club of Japan's Nippon Professional Baseball league.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Slater served in various management capacities for the Los Angeles Dodgers for nine years, including Director of Scouting Operations, Director of Baseball Operations and Director of Professional Scouting. With the Dodgers, he oversaw scouting operations while also being involved with contract negotiations, arbitration and roster management. He worked with the Baltimore Orioles from 1995-98 as the Administrator of Scouting. Slater got his start in professional baseball with the Milwaukee Brewers when he was 19 years old. Beginning in 1991, he served as the Brewers' Scouting and Player Development Assistant.

A native of Fort Wayne, Indiana, Slater graduated from Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wis., in 1993, with a degree in Business Administration – Organizational Management, and holds a law degree from Southwestern Law School in Los Angeles, Calif. He serves on the board of directors for Independence Center, a non-profit mental health facility in St. Louis. He resides in Chesterfield, Mo., with his wife, Thomasine, and their three children, Brandon (14), Madison (11) and Jacob (11).

GREG HAUCK
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Hauck enters his fifth season as the Head Athletic Trainer with the Cardinals organization and his 11th year with the club overall. He joined the team in January of 2005 and served as the Assistant Athletic Trainer for six seasons. A native of Ashland, Oregon, Hauck lived and worked in Phoenix, Ariz., prior to joining the Cardinals.

Before his move to St. Louis, Hauck taught and practiced Sports Medicine in the Arizona school system. From 1997 through the 2000 season he was the Medical Rehab and Minor League Strength and Conditioning Coordinator with the Oakland Athletics. He spent nine years prior to that role as an Athletic Trainer in the A's organization.

Hauck received his Bachelor of Science degree from Southern Oregon University and his masters degree from the University of Phoenix. In addition to being a Certified Athletic Trainer, he is also a Certified Strength and Conditioning Coach. The 49-year-old Hauck enjoys reading and spending time with his family. He and his wife, Carrie, have a daughter Courtney (15) and son, Garrett (9), and make their home in St. Louis with their dogs, Sara and Missy.

CHRIS CONROY
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Chris Conroy was named Assistant Athletic Trainer for the Major League club for the 2012 season and enters his fourth year in that role. He is in his 17th year working for the Cardinals organization overall.

Conroy, 38, has worked his entire career with the Cardinals including 2005-2011 as head trainer for the Memphis Redbirds (AAA). Throughout his time with the organization, he has also put time in at Tennessee, New Haven, Potomac and Johnson City.

He graduated from the College of Charleston in 1998, and is a native of Raleigh, North Carolina. He and his wife, Kristi, have two daughters, Madelyn (4) and Cecelia (1), and reside in St. Louis.

ADAM OLSEN
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER / PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Adam Olsen begins his sixth season in St. Louis with the Cardinals as Assistant Athletic Trainer/Physical Therapist. Prior to working in St. Louis, Olsen was the Medical/Rehab Coordinator for the Cardinals in Jupiter, Fla., the preceding four seasons. In his current position he not only assists in the daily athletic training needs of the club, but serves as the rehab coordinator for the team's Major League players. Currently a Full-Body Certified Active Release Techniques (ART) Practitioner, Olsen is working through the Dynamic Neuromuscular Stabilization (DNS) educational tract.

Olsen is a native of Green Bay, Wisconsin and a graduate of Auburn University where he earned his Athletic Training Certification. He worked as an athletic trainer for Disney's Wide World of Sports and Wildwood High School in the Orlando area before returning to school for his Master's in Physical Therapy from The University of Wisconsin- Madison. Following graduation, Olsen completed a post-professional Sports Physical Therapy Fellowship at Champion Sports Medicine and the American Sports Medicine Institute (ASMI) under the direction of Dr. James Andrews and Kevin Wilk in Birmingham, Alabama.

Olsen, 37, and his wife, Amy, reside in St. Louis with their daughters, Annabelle Frances (5) and newborn Piper James, and their dog Bailey.

PETE PRINZI
STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Pete Prinzi is in his 16th season at the Major League level for the Cardinals and his 19th year in the Cardinals system overall. He is a registered strength conditioning coach with distinction through the National Strength and Conditioning Association and was recognized in 2011 as the Strength Coach of the Year by Major League Baseball. From 1997 through 1999, he was the organization's minor league strength and conditioning coordinator.

Prinzi, 45, graduated from Florida State University where he played football for the Seminoles. After playing professionally for three seasons (1991-93) in the European Football League, he returned to his alma mater as an assistant strength coach from 1994 through 1996.

A native of Tampa, Fla., Prinzi resides in St. Louis with his wife, Ellen, and their two children: Luke (3) and Samantha (2).

MANAGER, COACHES & PLAYERS

Joaquin Andujar joined the Cardinals mid-season in 1981 from Houston, and helped St. Louis to a World Championship with a 15-win season in 1982. He went on to have back-to-back 20-win seasons in 1984 (20-14) and 1985 (21-12).

MICHAEL (MIKE) SCOTT MATHENY (26)

Mike Matheny was named the 49th manager in St. Louis Cardinals franchise history on November 14, 2011. Matheny, 44, is in his fourth season as a manager at the professional level. He served as a Special Assistant in Player Development for the Cardinals prior to his being named manager. Matheny agreed to a three-year contract extension on November 20, 2013, which keeps the Redbirds manager under contract through the 2017 season.

In just three seasons as Manager of the Cardinals, Matheny has led his team to the playoffs every season, securing a Wild Card spot in 2012, Central Division titles in 2013 and 2014 and a National League Championship in 2013. He has already managed 39 postseason games, as the team fell one win short of making it to the World Series in 2012 and faced Boston in the 2013 World Series, finishing just two wins shy of the Championship. In 2014, Matheny was the manager for the National League All-Star team in Minneapolis, Minn.

When Matheny took his team to the World Series in 2013, in his second year, he became the first manager in Cardinals history to pilot the Redbirds to the postseason in each of his first two full seasons, and the 8th manager in MLB history to do so. Using a roster that combined veterans and young talent, he guided the team to its 19th National League title and a World Series meeting with the Boston Red Sox, who they matched with an MLB-best 97 wins during the regular season.

In 2014, Matheny became the first Cardinals manager to join an elite list of Major League Baseball managers who have reached the postseason in each of their first three full seasons, joining Ron Gardenhire (2002-04), Larry Dierker (1997-99), Ralph Houk (1961-63) and Hughie Jennings (1907-09). Since 2012, Matheny has won 20 postseason games, ranking second only to Bruce Bochy (23) of the Giants and he is the only manager during that stretch to have won three straight Division Series.

In his first year at the helm in 2012, Matheny guided the Cardinals to the National League Championship round of the playoffs, having captured a Wild Card berth on the next-to-last day of the regular season. Mike became the first rookie manager to lead the Cardinals to the postseason since Eddie Dyer led the Redbirds to a World Championship win over Boston in 1946.

When he was named to the post at age 41, Matheny became the youngest active manager in the majors and the youngest Cardinals manager since Jack Krol, who was also 41 when he managed the team in 1978. Matheny joined notables such as Red Schoendienst, Joe Torre, Ken Boyer, Frank Frisch and Rogers Hornsby amongst Cardinals players who later served as the team's manager.

A veteran of 13 seasons in the majors, Matheny was drafted out of the University of Michigan by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 8th round of the 1991 draft. He made his Major League debut with the Brewers in 1994 and spent five seasons (1994-98) with Milwaukee before signing a free-agent contract with the Toronto Blue Jays in 1999. Following his release by the Blue Jays, Matheny signed a free-agent contract with the Cardinals on December 16, 1999 and went on to spend five seasons with the Cardinals from 2000-04, earning trips to the postseason in four of those five seasons, including a National League Championship in 2004. As a Cardinal, Matheny appeared in 611 games at catcher, logging 4,938.1 innings while committing just 14 errors.

The four-time (2000, 2003-05) Rawlings Gold Glove recipient holds the Major League catching record for consecutive errorless games (252) and at one time held the mark for consecutive errorless chances (1,565) before it was broken by Mike Redmond. He posted a lifetime batting mark of .239 with 67 home runs and 443 RBI in 1,305 games played in a career that was cut short due to complications from repeated concussions. Matheny signed with San Francisco as a free-agent prior to the 2005 season and he spent two seasons with the Giants before playing his final game on May 31, 2006. In his first season with the Giants, Matheny set the team record for fielding pct. (.9988) by a catcher, came within two of the team mark (36) for doubles by a catcher and was voted by his teammates as the recipient of the "Willie Mac Award" for being the most inspirational player on the team.

In 2002, Matheny served as an inspirational leader for the Cardinals, helping the team to cope with the shocking death of pitcher Darryl Kile while still reaching the National League Championship Series. Matheny was voted by his teammates as the first recipient of the "Darryl Kile Award" in 2003 - an award that goes annually to the Cardinals player who best demonstrates the qualities that Darryl brought to the clubhouse every day; those of a good teammate, a great friend, a fine father and a humble man.

Matheny has been a tireless worker in the community, organizing and creating the "Catch-22" charity that donated tickets to Cardinals fans from 2002-04. In 2005, his group saw the opening of the "Catch 22 Miracle Field" at Chesterfield Valley Athletic Complex. The $650,000 project was designed and constructed to allow children of all abilities to experience the thrill of playing baseball, and is specially designed to accommodate athletes with physical and mental disabilities. Funding for the field project was provided by "Catch 22 Foundation", which Mike created.

In February of 2015, Matheny published a book, "The Matheny Manifesto", which is about coaching youth baseball with the philosophy about respect, ownership, self-motivation and no-nonsense sportsmanship that define character displayed on a playing field. The books shares his views with players, parents and coaches on how to work together.

Matheny (pronounced muh-THEE-nee) was born on September 22, 1970 in Reynoldsburg, Ohio, and graduated from Reynoldsburg High School in 1988, where he was a team captain for both the baseball and football teams. He was a member of the Connie Mack National Championship team in 1989 and attended the University of Michigan, where he was co-captain of the Wolverines' baseball team. Mike's wife, Kristin, was also a varsity athlete at Michigan, playing field hockey. The couple reside in St. Louis with their five children: daughter Katie (20) and four sons, Tate (21), Luke (18), Jacob (17) and Blaise (14). His son, Tate, plays baseball at Missouri State University in Springfield, Mo., and was drafted in the 23rd round of the June 2012 draft by St. Louis, but did not sign. His daughter, Katie, plays women's ice hockey at The Ohio State University.

DAVID BELL (25)
BENCH COACH

David Bell is in his second year on the Cardinals coaching staff and first as the bench coach after serving as assistant hitting coach in 2014.

Bell was previously the third base coach for the Chicago Cubs in 2013 after having spent the previous four seasons as a manager and coach in the Cincinnati Reds organization. After a 12-year Major League career, he began his coaching career in 2009 as the Manager for the Reds' Double-A Carolina team, serving in that position through 2011. He managed the Triple-A Louisville club for the Reds in 2012. Following the 2009 campaign, Bell also managed the Peoria Saguaros of the Arizona Fall League.

Bell, 42, is a member of one of Major League Baseball's three generation families: the son of Buddy Bell and the grandson of Gus Bell. David's career began with Cleveland and continued with St. Louis, Seattle, San Francisco, Philadelphia and Milwaukee. He was fortunate to play in 35 postseason games, reaching the ALCS with Seattle in both 2000 and 2001 before reaching the World Series with the N.L. Champion San Francisco Giants in 2002. David faced St. Louis in the 2002 LCS with San Francisco.

The former infielder set career highs with 21 home runs and 78 RBI in 1999 with Seattle and batted a career-best .291 with Philadelphia in 2004. He made his Major League debut in 1995 with Cleveland and was traded to St. Louis on July 27 of that season in a four-player deal that sent pitcher Ken Hill to the Indians. Bell hit for the cycle on June 28, 2004 with Philadelphia, and in doing so became the first grandfather-grandson tandem in Major League history to hit for the cycle (Gus doing so on 6/4/51 while with Pittsburgh at Philadelphia). In 2002, David received the Willie McCovey Award as the Giant's most inspirational player.

A graduate of Moeller High School in Cincinnati, Bell helped the club to the 1989 state baseball championship. He was drafted by Cleveland in the seventh round of the 1990 draft. He resides in Scottsdale, Ariz., in the off-season.

BLAISE FRANCIS ILSLEY (49)

BULLPEN COACH

Blaise Ilsley begins his third season as the team's bullpen coach, after being promoted to that position on November 5, 2012. His current role follows five seasons as the pitching coach for the Cardinals Triple-A Memphis affiliate. He was promoted to the Triple-A club in 2008 after working six seasons as the pitching coach at the Cardinals Double-A affiliate.

His combined 12 seasons with the Cardinals' minor league organization includes overseeing a Memphis pitching staff that led the Pacific Coast League in team ERA in three of his five seasons. One of those years was the 2009 Memphis team that finished 77-67 en route to the PCL playoffs and eventually the league championship. The 2011 staff combined to lead the PCL with a league-best 4.10 ERA and tied for the league lead with a walks+hits/innings pitched ratio of 1.39 on the season.

Ilsley was honored by the Cardinals following the 2004 season with the George Kissell Award, presented annually by the Cardinals for excellence in player development. He came to the Cardinals from the Orioles' organization after serving as the pitching coach for Bluefield in the Appalachian League during the 2001 campaign. Ilsley began his coaching career in 1999 with Winnipeg of the Independent Northern League and moved on to coach at Sioux Falls in 2000. He spent 14 seasons playing in the minor leagues with the Astros, Cardinals, Cubs, Phillies, Indians and Expos, concluding his playing career in 1998.

He appeared in 10 games in the Major Leagues with the Cubs in 1994, making his Major League debut on April 4 of that year. A fourth-round pick of the Houston Astros in 1985, Ilsley was named to the Topps Rookie League All-Star team after leading the New York-Penn League with 116 strikeouts in 90 innings for Class-A Auburn. He combined to win 20 games at two minor league stops in 1986. The 1982 graduate of Alpena High School (Mich.) attended Indiana State University.

Ilsley, 51, resides in Sarasota, Fla., with his wife, Jo Anne.

DEREK JANSEN LILLIQUIST (34)

PITCHING COACH

Derek Lilliquist is in his 14th year with the Cardinals organization, his fifth as a member of the Major League coaching staff and fourth season in his current role as Pitching Coach. He served as the team's bullpen coach in 2011, and took over the pitching coach duties in August 2012 after Dave Duncan took a leave of absence.

In 2014, the Cardinals pitching staff fired a Major League-leading 23 shutouts, the most by a Cardinals team since the mound was lowered after the 1968 season when the Cardinals pitchers hurled 30 shutouts.

"Lilly" served as the Jupiter Complex pitching coordinator from 2008-2010, working with rehabilitating pitchers, and from 2004-07 he served as the pitching coach for Palm Beach (A). Palm Beach made the playoffs twice in that span and won the 2005 Florida State League Championship as the pitching staff registered the second best ERA (3.94) in the FSL.

Lilliquist initiated his career with the Cardinals at rookie level Johnson City in 2002, then moved on to Peoria in 2003. Before joining the Cardinals, Lilliquist was a high school baseball coach at Vero Beach (Fla.) High School from 1998 to 2001.

The former lefthanded starter-turned-reliever spent five-plus years in the Major Leagues, recording 25 victories. In 1992 while with Cleveland, Lilliquist made 71 appearances, going 5-3 with a 1.75 ERA. The next season with Cleveland, he earned 10 saves while recording a 2.25 ERA. He was drafted in 1987 by the Atlanta Braves in the first round (sixth pick overall) of the June free agent draft and spent time in the Major Leagues with Atlanta, San Diego, Cleveland, Boston and Cincinnati, ending his professional career in 1997.

Lilliquist, 49, graduated from Sarasota (Fla.) High School and had an outstanding collegiate career at the University of Georgia where he compiled a 31-12 record with a 3.30 ERA in three years. In 1987 he led Georgia to the SEC title and a first-ever trip to the NCAA College World Series after being named College Pitcher of the Year by Baseball America.

He makes his off-season home in Vero Beach and has two children, Derek (21) and Alexandra (19).

JOHN STEVEN MABRY (47)
HITTING COACH

John Mabry is beginning his third year as the team's hitting coach after being named to that position on November 5, 2012. He was assistant hitting coach to Mark McGwire during the 2012 campaign. The duo helped guide a Cardinals offense that led the league in 2012 in both runs scored and on-base pct., while finishing a close second in batting average. In 2013, the Cardinals batted .330 with runners in scoring position, the top mark in the majors dating to 1974.

Mabry, 44, was drafted by St. Louis in the sixth round of the June 1991 draft and played 14 seasons in the majors, including three stints with the Cardinals. He made his Major League debut in 1994 and put up some of his best offensive numbers with the Cardinals from 1995 - 1998. He hit a career high .307 in 1995 and during the 1996 season played in a career high 151 games, hitting .297 with a career high 161 hits, collected 13 homers and 74 RBI as the Cardinals advanced to the NLCS. In addition to playing with the Cardinals, his Major League career included playing time with eight Major League teams and ended in 2007 with the Colorado Rockies.

Before joining the Cardinals staff as a coach, Mabry assisted the team in various community relations initiatives, including the team's "Doin' it Right" school program from 2010-2011. A native of Delaware, he graduated in 1988 from Bohemia Manor (Md.) High School where he played football, baseball and basketball; and was drafted out of West Chester (Pa.) University. Mabry was named the Cardinals Rookie of the Year for 1995 by the St. Louis chapter of the BBWAA. He and his wife, Ann, make their home in St. Louis with their four children: J.T., Danielle, Nicole and Samantha.

JAMES CHRIS MALONEY (77)
FIRST-BASE COACH

Chris Maloney is entering his fourth season on the Cardinals Major League coaching staff as the team's First Base Coach after being named to that position in 2012. Maloney spent the previous five seasons (2007-11) as the Memphis Redbirds (AAA) manager, leading the team to winning records in four of his five seasons. He guided the 2010 Redbirds to the Pacific Coast League Championship Series for the second straight season and entered the 2010 series on a nine-game PCL playoffs win streak dating back to 2009 when his Memphis club won the PCL Championship by sweeping Albuquerque and Sacramento in six straight games.

Maloney skippered two seasons at Springfield (AA) from 2005-06 prior to his promotion to Memphis. "Hammer" returned to the Cardinals organization in 2005 after having spent three years in the Astros organization as manager of the Triple-A New Orleans Zephyrs. Maloney posted a 212-220 record with the Zephyrs, including a first place finish in 2002.

Maloney's previous tenure with the Cardinals included Manager of the Year honors in three different leagues: the New York-Penn League while leading Hamilton to a 56-20 (.737) record in 1992, the highest winning percentage by a Cardinals minor league team; the South Atlantic League with Savannah in 1993, and the Texas League with Arkansas in 1998. His 1993 Savannah squad posted a 94-48 record and captured the league title as Maloney was named Baseball Weekly's Minor League Manager of the Year. In his 17 seasons as a manager in the Cardinals system, Maloney compiled a 1016-870 (.539) record.

His work with young Cardinals players was formally recognized when he was presented with the 2006 and 2009 George Kissell Awards, presented annually for excellence in player development. The 2009 award made Maloney the first two-time winner.

Maloney, 53, is a native of Jackson, Miss. He graduated from Mississippi State University in 1983 and was later signed as a non-drafted free agent by the New York Mets. The former outfielder-first baseman was purchased by the Cardinals in 1986 and played one minor league season at Springfield, Ill. He and wife, Laurie, have a daughter, Ann Bradley, and son, Jake, and reside in Jackson, Miss., in the off-season.

WILLIAM (BILL) RICHARD MUELLER (3)
ASSISTANT HITTING COACH

Bill Mueller joins the Cardinals as the assistant hitting coach after spending the 2014 season as the hitting coach for the Chicago Cubs.

This is the third coaching assignment for Mueller who served as interim hitting coach with the Los Angeles Dodgers during the 2007 season. He also worked in the front office of the Dodgers organization as a special assistant to the general manager from 2008-13.

The switch-hitting infielder was drafted in the 15th round of the 1993 draft by the San Francisco Giants and made his Major League debut for the Giants in 1996.

He played 11 seasons with four different organizations starting with the Giants (1996-2000, 2002), Cubs (2001-02), Red Sox (2003-05) and Dodgers (2006).

Mueller won the 2003 American League batting title with a .326 average. A season later, Mueller was a member of the 2004 World Champion Red Sox club which brought the city its first baseball championship in 86 years by beating the Cardinals. Mueller batted .429 (6-14) for the Red Sox in the 2004 World Series.

Over his playing career, Mueller played in the postseason five times, twice with the Giants in 1997 and 2000 and with the Red Sox from 2003-05, totaling 36 postseason games with a .234 batting average.

Mueller finished his career with a .291 batting average over 1,216 games, smacking 85 home runs with 493 RBI. His .373 on-base percentage as a third baseman ranks 6th since his debut in 1996, trailing only Miguel Cabrera, Chipper Jones, Alex Rodriguez, Wade Boggs and David Wright.

Mueller,44, is a native of St. Louis who attended and graduated from DeSmet Jesuit High School in Creve Coeur, before going on to play college baseball at Missouri State University. He and his wife Amy have three children, Lexi, Tucker and Dawson. His name is pronounced: MILL-er.

JOSE MANUEL OQUENDO (11)

THIRD-BASE COACH

Jose Oquendo, who is entering in his 16th season as the Cardinals third-base coach, is the longest tenured coach on the Cardinals big-league staff. He joined the club's major league staff in 1999 as bench coach. Upon ending his playing career, he was a field instructor in the Cardinals farm system in 1997 before managing the Redbirds' New Jersey affiliate to a 34-41 finish in 1998.

Oquendo's professional playing career spanned 17 seasons and included big-league duty with the New York Mets (1983-84) and Cardinals (1986-95). Dubbed the "Secret Weapon" during his 10 seasons with the Redbirds, Oquendo established single-season Major League records for the highest fielding percentage (.996) and fewest errors by a second baseman (three) in 1990. He also led the league in fielding in 1989 and compiled a .992 fielding average at second base for his career.

Oquendo batted .286 for the Cardinals' 1987 pennant-winning club and hit a career-high .291 in 1989 while playing in a league-high 163 games. In 1988, Oquendo became the first National League player since 1918 to play all nine positions in one season.

A native of Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico, Oquendo, 51, now makes his home in Stuart, Fla., with his wife, Zenaida, their four children, and granddaughter, Gabriela. He was voted top utility man on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005. Oquendo managed the Puerto Rican team in the inaugural World Baseball Classic in 2006 and again in 2009 and was the manager of the victorious World Team during the MLB Futures Game that was played during the 2009 All-Star Week in St. Louis.

LOUIS (LOU) CLARK BROCK (20)
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Lou Brock, named as a special instructor on December 9, 1994, assists with base-running and outfield instruction during spring training. He served as a base-running consultant for Montreal in 1993, Los Angeles in 1988 and Minnesota in 1987; all three clubs increased their stolen base totals over the previous season.

Brock, 75, is the National League's all-time leader with 938 stolen bases, including an N.L.-record 118 thefts in 1974. He established a major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals (1965-76) and led the league in steals eight times. He was the first player to steal at least 50 bases and hit 20 homers in the same season, posting a 21-homer, 52-steal campaign in 1967. His 3,023 hits rank 24th on the all-time list.

While teammate Bob Gibson served as the pitching linchpin in the 1964, 1967 and 1968 World Series, Brock was the club's offensive catalyst. He established major league records for highest career batting average (.391) and most stolen bases in a single Series (seven, in both 1967 and 1968).

In 1985, Brock was inducted into the Hall of Fame. His uniform No. 20 is one of 12 that have been retired by the Cardinals. Since the end of his playing career, Brock has been involved in many marketing and promotional ventures. He is the founder and president of Brockworld Products. He also worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984. He was voted leftfielder on the All-Busch Stadium II team at the end of the 2005 season. The National League has named the award given to the N.L.'s stolen base champion the "Lou Brock Award" in honor of Lou's success on the basepaths.

ROBERT (BOB) GIBSON (45)
SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Bob Gibson, who earned distinction as one of baseball's fiercest competitors and most dominating pitchers of all time as a Cardinal from 1959 to 1975, begins his 20th season as Cardinals special instructor. Gibson, 79, served as the Cardinals' bullpen coach in 1995. He formerly was a pitching coach under Joe Torre for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84).

A winner of the N.L. Cy Young Award in 1968 and 1970, Gibson also earned league MVP honors in 1968, when he set a major league record for lowest ERA (1.12) for a pitcher with 300 or more innings. That June, he pitched five shutouts, tying an N.L. record for one month.

In World Series competition, few players compared to Gibson. He pitched a record eight consecutive complete games over the course of the 1964, 1967 and 1968 Series, winning seven games. His 35 strikeouts in the 1968 Series still stand as a record, as does his single-game mark of 17 strikeouts, established in the Series opener. He also holds the career mark for most postseason games with 10 or more strikeouts (five).

Gibson was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981. His career totals include a team-record 251 victories and 3,117 strikeouts. He fanned more than 200 batters nine times, won nine Gold Gloves and was a nine-time N.L. All-Star. His uniform No. 45 is one of 12 retired by the Cardinals. Gibson was voted top starting pitcher on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005.

He and his wife, Wendy, make their home in Bellevue, Neb. His son, Chris, was signed by the Cardinals in January of 2008 and spent playing time in both the Cardinals and Los Angeles Dodgers minor league system.

ALBERT FRED (RED) SCHOENDIENST (2)

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Red Schoendienst has been involved in professional baseball for the past 73 seasons. He coached in St. Louis from 1961-64 under Manager Johnny Keane and in 1965 began a 12-year stint as Cardinals manager. His 12 seasons at the helm of the Redbirds stood as the longest tenure in club history until Tony La Russa managed his 13th season in 2008. Schoendienst managed the Cardinals to a World Series championship in 1967 and a National League pennant in 1968. He also served as interim manager of the Redbirds in 1980 and 1990, and coached for the Oakland A's in 1977 and 1978.

As a player, Schoendienst appeared with the Cardinals in 15 seasons, mostly as their second baseman. He played in three World Series: 1946 with the Cardinals and 1957 and 1958 with Milwaukee. He was chosen to 10 N.L. All-Star Game squads, and in 1950 cracked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning. He also managed the National League All-Stars to victories in 1968 and 1969.

In 1989, Schoendienst was paid baseball's ultimate honor with his induction into the Hall of Fame. During his career, he collected 2,449 hits, including a league-high 200 in 1957, batted .289, and tied or led the league in fielding at his position seven times. His uniform No. 2 was retired by the Cardinals in 1996.

Schoendienst was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame on November 7, 1987. During his playing days, he also participated with the Budweiser national bowling team.

"Red" was born on February 2, 1923, at Germantown, Ill., and was married to the late Mary Schoendienst for 53 years (Sept. 20, 1947). They had four children: Colleen (6/23/51), Cathleen (10/16/52), Eileen (3/19/57) and Kevin (11/3/58).

FULL NAME: Matthew James Adams
BORN: Phillipsburg, Pennsylvania
OPENING DAY AGE: 26 (Turns 27 on August 31)
BECAME CARDINAL: Selected by the Cardinals in the 23rd round (699th overall) of the June 2009 First-Year Player Draft.
CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2015.

FIRST BASEMAN

CAREER:

- He and Brian Jordan (1996) are the only two players in franchise history to hit two go-ahead home runs in the 7th inning or later during the same postseason (2014 DS Gm 4, LCS Gm 2).
- Named to the Baseball Digest and Baseball America 2013 Rookie All-Star teams.
- Became the first person in Major League Baseball history to hit two home runs in the 14th inning or later, doing so on Sept. 4, 2013 at Cincinnati when he blasted home runs in both the 14th and 16th frames. It also marked the first time in Cardinals history a player had hit two home runs in extra innings.
- Averaged an RBI every 4.91 at-bats in the minor leagues (291 RBI/1430 AB).
- Led his respective league in RBI and slugging percentage in both 2010 (Midwest) and 2011 (Texas).

2014 SEASON:

- Led team with a .288 batting average, ranking 14th in the N.L. It marked first time since 1986 (Ozzie Smith, .280) that the Cardinals team BA leader was under .290.
- His 13 game-winning RBI ranked T14th among N.L. leaders and he was T9th with 7 sacrifice flies.
- Ranked 9th in N.L. home batting (.313).
- Led Cardinals in slugging (.457), intentional walks (5) and tied for the team lead in triples (5). Had not received an IBB in MLB prior to 2014. Ranked 3rd on team with 54 extra base hits and 41 multi-hit games.
- Posted his single-season highs in doubles (34), runs batted in (68), walks (26), intentional walks (5), runs (55) and hits (152).
- His 5 triples were the most by a Cardinals first baseman since Keith Hernandez (6) in 1982.
- Batted over .300 in April (.314), May (.329) and June (.328).
- Placed on the 15-day disabled list 5/31 with left calf tightness. Missed 13 games....
- Hit safely in 12 straight road games 5/10-7/1 and had a career-best 9-game hit streak from 7/3-11.
- Homered in a team-high three straight games June 13-15 (vs. WSH) and became the first Cardinals since Ozzie Smith (1988) with a game-winning RBI in four straight games (6/13-16).
- Had 3rd career multi-HR game at COL on 6/23 with career-high 6 RBI.
- Had a career-high four-hit game vs. MIA (7/6).
- Hit his first career walk-off home run vs. PIT (7/7) in 2-0 win.

2014 POSTSEASON: Started all nine postseason games at first base for St. Louis and hit three home runs that produced five runs, while collecting seven RBI during the postseason...walked a team-high 5 times during the playoffs...collected an RBI single in the Cards 8-run 7th in Division Series Game 1 vs. Los Angeles Dodgers...hit decisive 3-run home run in Game 4 (7th inning) to give Cards a 3-2 game win and Division Series win...hit solo HR in the 8th of League Championship Series vs. San Francisco in Game 2 for then go-ahead run...he and Brian Jordan (1996) are the only Cardinals players in franchise history to hit two go-ahead HRs in the 7th inning or later in the same postseason...his 4th-inning solo home run in LCS Gm 4 briefly tied the game at 2-2...two of his three home runs in the postseason came off of left-handed pitchers (C. Kershaw DS Gm 4, M. Bumgarner LCS Gm 5); tallied only 3 HRs off LH pitchers in 130 PA (121 ABs) during the regular season...his HR off Bumgarner was the first the lefty had allowed in 32 starts (since 4/11).

2013 – Began the season on the Major League roster for the first time...ranked 3rd on the team with 17 HR in 108 games; St. Louis was 13-2 when he homered...nine of his 17 home runs came with two-strikes, most on STL and T8th in N.L....averaged 17.61 AB/HR, ranking 6th in the N.L. (min. 250 AB)...led the Majors in pinch-hitting batting average (.314) and the N.L. in PH slugging (.600)...had three pinch-hit home runs, one shy of STL season record...batted .329 with runners in scoring position (28-85)...began the season with two three-hit games and four multi-hit games in his first five games, during a season-best hitting streak of five games (4/3-14)...was batting .542, 3 HR, 8 RBI before missing 13 games with a right oblique strain, 4/22-5/6...hit a career-best eight home runs in September, 3rd in MLB, and slugged .609 (5th, NL)...had two multi-home run games (6/29 at OAK & 9/4 at CIN)...his multi-HR game at CIN (9/4) was the first time a Cardinals player hit two extra inning HRs (14th, 16th) & first player in MLB history with 2 HRs past 14th inning...pressed into starting role following Allen Craig's injury (9/4) batting .326 (29-89) with 8HR, 15 RBI and 19 runs in final 24 games of the season.
2013 POSTSEASON: Played in his first MLB postseason and started at first base in 15 of 16 games...went 13-59 with two doubles, one homer and four RBI during the postseason...recorded .316 average in five Division Series games vs. Pittsburgh...scored twice, reaching three times (BB, HBP, 1B) in DS Game 1; had single and double in Game 2 and blasted a 2-run home run in Game 5 win...during the League Championship Series vs. Los Angeles Dodgers had one of Cardinals four hits in Game 3, 2-4 in Game 5 at LA and 2-3 in the decisive Game 6 at Busch... collected single RBI in LCS Games 5 & 6...recorded three hits during the World Series with Boston Red Sox, including 2 singles in Game 3.

2012 – Made his Major League debut during 2012 but spent most of the season at Memphis (AAA), where he saw his season shortened due to injury...despite time in the big leagues and on the disabled list, in 67 games led Memphis in HRs (18), 4th in doubles (22) was 5th in RBI (50) and his .329 average topped regulars...ranked T15th among Pacific Coast League players with 18 home runs...was purchased from Memphis on 5/20 (Berkman DL) and made his Major League debut that night at LAD, starting at first base...played in 27 games with St. Louis, starting 23 (all at 1B), picking up 21 hits, six doubles, two home runs and 13 RBI...hit his first Major League home run on 5/27 vs. PHI, a solo shot in the 6th inning off Chad Qualls...optioned to Memphis on 6/21 where he spent rest of season...hit .325 in April, .361 in May with Memphis and .414 in June when he returned to the Redbirds...was on the disabled list from 7/1-16 with right elbow soreness and then from 8/11 to end of season...had surgery 8/13 to remove bone chips from his right elbow...rated as 9th-best prospect in Cardinals organization by Baseball America.

INFIELDER

CAREER:

- Leads all National League players with 361 hits, 225 runs, 88 doubles and 110 multi-hit games over the last two seasons (2013-14). His 167 walks rank 3rd in the N.L. during that time span.
- His 95 walks in 2014 marked the highest single-season total by a Cardinals third baseman in franchise history.
- Became the first player in franchise history to hit a home run in three consecutive games of a single postseason series (2014 Division Series Games 1, 2, 3 vs. Los Angeles Dodgers).
- Silver Slugger award winner in 2013 after a season in which he hit .318 (5th in the N.L.) and led the majors in runs (126), hits (199), doubles (55), multi-hit games (63) and tied for the MLB lead with 18 three-hit games.
- Set the St. Louis franchise record for most doubles by a left-handed batter at 55 in 2013, breaking the mark (53) held by Stan Musial since 1953. The 55 doubles were also a team record for a second baseman.
- Established a new Busch Stadium III record with 112 hits at home during the 2013 season.
- Finished 4th in 2013 National League MVP voting.
- Selected to the 2013 National League All-Star team by vote of players & to the 2014 N.L. All-Star team by manager selection.

2014 SEASON:

- Played in a single-season high 158 games, 5th in the National League.
- Named to National League All-Star Team by manager selection, but did not play. It was his second-straight All-Star selection.
- Ranked among N.L. leaders in runs (99, 3rd), at-bats (595, 10th), on-base percentage (.375, 7th), singles (119, T9th) and plate appearances per walk (7.46, 3rd).
- Led the Cardinals with 162 hits (20th in N.L.) and 47 multi-hit games (T14th). Hit 33 doubles and recorded 43 extra-base hits.
- Led the National League with 4.37 pitches/plate appearance.
- Led the National League with 95 walks, which was also the highest single-season total by a Cardinals third baseman.
- Became the first Cardinals player to lead the N.L. in walks since Mark McGwire (1998), first Cardinals left-handed batter since Stan Musial (1953) and the first N.L. player with less than 10 HR to do so since Brett Butler (1991).
- Ranked T3rd in the N.L. with a single-season best nine sacrifice flies. Has 23 sac flies over the past three seasons, T6th in MLB and 2nd in the N.L. (Posey, SF 24).
- Led the majors in percentage of pitches taken (66.9) and ranked 3rd in N.L. in fewest pct. of swings and misses (11.9).
- Batted .305 on the road, 8th in the N.L.
- Hit two lead-off home runs: 6/18 vs. NYM (Colon) & 7/22 vs. TB (Odorizzi).

FULL NAME: Jaime Omar Garcia
BORN: Reynosa, Mexico
OPENING DAY AGE: 28 (Turns 29 on July 8)
BECAME CARDINAL: Selected in 22nd round (680th overall) of the June 2005 free-agent draft.
CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2015 with club options for 2016 & 2017.

PITCHER

CAREER:

- Has the 7th-lowest career ERA (min. 10 games started) at Busch Stadium III with a 2.91 mark over 49 career starts (322.0 IP).
- Signed a 4-year contract extention with club options for 2016 & 2017 on July 13, 2011.
- Posted a 3.44 ERA over the past five seasons (2010-14), ranking 8th among left-handed pitchers (500+ innings pitched).
- Has surrendered just nine home runs to left-handed batters in his career, all of them to former All-Stars (Ryan Howard, Carlos Gonzalez, Freddie Freeman (2), Jay Bruce, Bryce Harper, Miguel Montero, Alex Gordon and Charlie Blackmon).
- Was the first pitcher to win at least 13 games for the Cardinals in both his rookie season and the following year since Harvey Haddix in 1953 (20-9 as a rookie) and 1954 (18-13). (Elias)
- Won 13 games in 2010 and '11, to become the first Cards LHP to win 10+ games in back-to-back seasons since Donovan Osborne in 1992 (11) & 1993 (10).

2014 SEASON:

- For a third-straight season, had his season cut short due to injury. Began the season on the disabled list recovering from left shoulder surgery performed in May 2013.
- Made two rehab starts before being activated: a shortened rehab start in Springfield (AA) on 5/4 (2.0 IP, 2R), coming out of the game after being hit by pitch on his left elbow while batting in the 2nd inning, and Memphis (AAA) on 5/12 (5.0 IP, 2R, 5K).
- Made his first Major League start since 5/17/13 on 5/18 vs. ATL. Allowed 4 runs in 7.0 IP and was in line for the win upon his exit, but Cards lost 6-5 when ATL scored in the 9th.
- Earned his 1st win of 2014, his 40th career win and the 10th win of his career over the Reds at CIN on 5/24, a 6-3 victory.
- Did not walk a batter in his first four starts (24.2 IP), 5/18-6/3.
- Blanked the Blue Jays over 7.0 IP on 6/8 at Rogers Centre, allowing just 3 hits in the 5-0 win and followed that with 7.0 IP vs. WSH allowing just one run on five hits - his final two wins on the year.
- Placed on the 15-day disabled list on 6/21 with left shoulder inflammation and was transferred to the 60-day on 7/11, missing the remainder of the season.
- Had neurogenic thoracic outlet surgery on 7/11 performed by Dr. Robert Thompson in St. Louis.

OUTFIELDER

CAREER:

- Earned his second Rawlings Gold Glove Award in 2014 after being voted his first career Gold Glove in 2012.
- Finished second in National League Rookie of the Year voting to San Francisco's Buster Posey (catcher) in 2010. Collected 107 total votes, including nine first-place votes, compared to Posey's 129 (20).
- Named Baseball America's 2010 Rookie of the Year in the National League, voted by the players as the 2010 Sporting News National League Rookie of the Year.
- Voted by fans to the 2010 National League All-Star team, but did not play due to a thumb injury.
- Hit a three-run home run in his first Major League plate appearance, becoming the sixth player in Atlanta history [Bob Horner (1978), Jermaine Dye (1996), Marty Malloy (1998), Jeff Francoeur (2005) and Jordan Schafer (2009)] and the 11th player in franchise history to hit a home run in his ML debut.
- At the age of 20, became the youngest player to hit a home run in his first Major League at-bat since 1950, when CIN's Ted Tappe, then 19, belted a pinch-hit home run at Ebbets Field.

2014 SEASON:

- Spent a fifth season playing rightfield for Atlanta; his 149 games played were his 2nd highest total behind 158 in 2012.
- Earned his second career Rawlings Gold Glove as a rightfielder and was a Platinum Glove finalist in the N.L. Was also named Wilson MLB Defensive Player of the Year.
- Had the highest number of total chances (375) and putouts (365) among rightfielders in the National League, with just one error - tied for the fewest in the N.L. (100 or more games played).
- His nine outfield assists tied for the most in the N.L. among RF players (100+ games). Has 23 OF assists between 2012-2014, 3rd most in the N.L. during that time span.
- Primarily served as the leadoff hitter for the Braves, appearing 94 times in the top spot in the lineup (.270, 103-382). Batted out of the no. 5 spot in the order in 54 games (.274, 52-190).
- His 155 hits and .271 batting average were 2nd on the Braves behind Freddie Freeman (175 H, .288). Walked 67 times, 2nd for ATL and T13th in the League.
- Had two 11-game hit streaks: 5/11-23 (.381, 16-42) and 5/26-6/7 (.354, 17-48), one short of his career high 12 in 2012. During that span (5/11-6/7) had hits in 22 of 24 games, batting .340 (33-97) with five of his 11 homers coming during that time.
- Tied for the Atlanta team lead with 20 steals, one shy of his career high of 21 in 2012. Ran out 19 infield hits, 2nd for the Braves (Simmons, 20).
- His 44 multi-hit games were T19th in the N.L. and he produced 23 multi-hit games in 62 contests from 7/8 to end of season, batting .313 (73-for-233) during that span.
- After slow start, posted a .286 average over his final 134 games (since 4/19), lifting his season batting average from .136 to .271.
- Reached base safely in 100 of 117 games with an AB (.288) from 5/9 to end of season.
- After a .309 July (25-81), his best month came in August when he hit .330 (35-106).
- Missed four games 9/19-22 after being HBP on his left thumb 9/17 vs. WSH.

OUTFIELDER

CAREER:

- His .295 batting average over the last five seasons (2010-14) ranks 8th among all MLB outfielders.
- Has been hit by pitch 49 times over the last three seasons (2012-14), 2nd in the majors behind Shin-Soo Choo (52).
- Batted .483 during the 2014 postseason which ranks as the 2nd highest single-season postseason batting average all time in the Majors (Manny Ramirez. .520 with LAD in 2008).
- Has reached base in his last 16 postseason games started since Game 3 of the 2013 NLCS, setting a new franchise record and is hitting .370 (20-for-54) during the streak. His streak surpasses the15-game streaks by Pete Kozma (10/7/12-10/9/13), Yadier Molina (10/15/06-10/4/11) and Jim Edmonds (10/4/05-10/13/06).
- Doubled in the 3rd inning of Game 5 of the 2014 National League Championship Series to snap a streak of 91 postseason at-bats without an extra-base hit, a Major League record (10/18/12-10/16/14).
- Has a .995 fielding percentage, leading all Cardinals outfielders over the last five seasons, and his 17 outfield assists rank 2nd on the club behind Holliday (25) during that time.
- Established a franchise record playing 245 consecutive games in the outfield without an error (8/25/11 - 7/29/13).
- Had no errors in 292 total chances during the 2012 season to become just the 3rd Cardinals outfielder to play errorless defense for an entire season (min. 108 games), joining Curt Flood in 1966 & Orlando Palmeiro in 2003.

2014 SEASON:

- Batted .303, but fell 34 plate appearances short of qualifying for the N.L. batting leaders.
- Went 45 games from 7/25-9/18 without going hitless in consecutive games, batting .338 (49-145) during that stretch.
- Batted .327 with two outs (48-147), ranking 2nd in the N.L. (Harrison, PIT .359).
- Batted .500 in bases loaded situations (6-12, 13 RBI), T4th in N.L., and .306 (22-72) in close & late situations, tops for the Cardinals and 20th in the N.L.
- Hit .375 (33-88) vs. left-handed pitchers, ranking 1st among MLB LH batters (min. 80 AB).
- Led MLB with a career-high 20 HBP, fourth instance a Cardinals player was hit by pitch 20 or more times in a single season (since 1914). Last was Fernando Vina (22) in 2001.
- Played all three outfield positions in the same game three times (7/19, 8/20, 9/6) for the first time in his career.
- Went 6-18, .333 as a pinch hitter, collecting 2 doubles and 4RBI. The six pinch hits were T2nd most among Cardinals.
- Batted .310 in June (22-78) and .382 (29-76) in August, ranking 2nd in the N.L.. Also had a monthly high 15 August RBI.
- Hit two of his three home runs in 2014 over a period of three games (8/9-11).
- Scored two or more runs in 10 games, with the Cardinals going 9-1 in those games (48 times in career; Cardinals 41-7).
- Hit safely in 12 straight games 8/9-20, hitting .514 (18-35) during that stretch (2-2B, 2-HR, 11-RBI).
- Underwent arthroscopic surgery in October to repair injured left wrist.

PITCHER

CAREER:

- Became the first starting pitcher in MLB history to throw 7.0+ innings in first two career starts (5/22/13 at SD & 5/28/13 at KC), allowing one run or less, four hits or less and one walk or less.
- Struck out a career-high eight batters over 4.2 innings in a relief appearance in Game 1 of DH vs. CHI on 8/30/14. It marked the most strikeouts by a Cardinals relief pitcher since Mark Littell fanned eight (at LAD) in 1978. Became the first Cardinals left-handed relief pitcher to strike out eight batters since Al Hrabosky in 1974 and the first lefty to throw 4.2 IP in relief since Sterling Hitchcock in 2003.
- Is 2-5 with a 3.15 ERA in 14 career MLB road appearances (7 starts) and 0-3 with a 6.88 ERA in nine home app. (5 starts).
- Has an 0-1 record with a 1.13 ERA in 11 career MLB relief appearances (24.0 IP) and is 2-7 with a 5.89 ERA in 12 starts.
- Threw a no-hitter in his seventh professional start (28th appearance) while at Palm Beach in 2011, the first no-hitter in franchise history.

2014 SEASON:

- Began the season at Memphis (AAA), but received recall to St. Louis four times during the season.
- First MLB action came when recalled from Memphis on April 21 to make a start at NYM. Pitched 6.0 innings, allowing two runs on four hits with seven strikeouts in a quality start loss (2-0).
- Made six starts in St. Louis before suffering a left shoulder strain injury and was placed on the 15-day disabled list May 13 through June 18, with injury rehabilitation assignments to Springfield (AA) and Memphis.
- Was optioned back to Memphis on June 18 upon activation from disabled list.
- Made 11 appearances in St. Louis with four starts. Was 0-3 with a 6.55 ERA in his four starts and 0-1 with a 1.23 ERA in seven relief appearances, averaging over a strikeout per inning (9.82 K/9 IP).
- Was 0-3 with a 5.46 ERA (7 app/4 GS) pre All-Star Break and 0-1 with a 1.04 ERA (4 app.) post All-Star Break.
- Threw 6.0 innings in three of his four Major League starts with two quality starts. Struck out seven batters twice (4/21 at NYM & 5/6 at ATL).
- Hurled a career-best 9.1 scoreless inning streak from July 10 to September 10 covering four relief appearances.
- Posted an 8-2 record with a 4.43 ERA in 14 starts at Memphis with two complete games and a shutout.
- Ranked 2nd among Pacific Coast League pitchers in complete games (2) and T1st in shutouts (1).
- His eight wins ranked T9th among Cardinals minor league pitchers.

FULL NAME: Michael Joseph Wacha
BORN: Iowa City, Iowa
OPENING DAY AGE: 23 (Turns 24 on July 1)
BECAME CARDINAL: Selected in first round (19th overall) of the June 2012 first-year player draft.
CONTRACT STATUS: Signed through 2015.

PITCHER

CAREER:

- Named 2013 National League Championship Series MVP throwing 13.2 scoreless innings, allowing seven hits, and struck out 13 for a 2-0 record while pitching opposite Dodgers N.L. Cy Young winner Clayton Kershaw in both starts.
- Joined Livan Hernandez (1997) and Mike Boddicker (1983) as only rookies to have won an LCS MVP award.
- Is one of 19 pitchers in MLB history to record four or more wins in a single postseason and only the third rookie pitcher joining Livan Hernandez (4, 1997) and Francisco Rodriguez (5, 2002), and the only American-born rookie pitcher to win four games in a single postseason.
- Set the MLB rookie strikeout record for one postseason with 33.
- Threw 30.2 innings in the 2013 postseason, marking the most by a rookie in a single postseason since Fernando Valenzuela set the mark with 40.2 in 1981 with the Dodgers.
- Became the first pitcher in Cardinals history to strike out the first nine batters of a game on April 23, 2014 at NYM. Also was the third MLB pitcher in the last 100 years to strike out 10 batters in a start that lasted 4.0 innings or less (Danny Salazar, CLE, 2014) & Felix Hernandez, SEA, 2013).
- His 3.04 ERA over the past two seasons is 25th best among MLB pitchers with 25 or more starts.
- Over two seasons including the postseason, is 9-1 with a 2.03 ERA in 17 starts (13 quality starts) at Busch Stadium.
- Named to the Pacific Coast League All-Star Game in 2013 and earned the Pacific Coast League's "Top Star" award retiring all five batters faced in a relief appearance.

2014 SEASON:

- Began the season on Opening Day roster for the first time & made a single-season high 19 starts in injury-shortened season.
- Was placed on the disabled list after 15 starts on June 23 (retroactive to June 18) with right shoulder stress reaction and missed 68 games. Activated from the 60-day D.L. on September 4 and made four more starts.
- Pitched 6.0+ innings in 12 of his 19 starts, and four of his starts went into extra innings with three lasting 12 innings.
- At the time he was placed on the D.L., ranked 12th in NL in ERA (2.79) & 6th in opp. BA (.222).
- Was 5-0 with a 2.44 ERA in nine starts (55.0 IP) at Busch Stadium in 2014. Eight of the nine starts were quality starts.
- Was winless on the road, going 0-6, 4.01 in 2014 and has a 2-6, 4.09 ERA career mark on the road.
- Endured six weather delays totaling 6-hours 30-minutes during his 2014 starts.
- Made four starts in September after returning from D.L., going 0-1 with a 5.40 over 16.2 innings with 11 strikeouts.
- Earned the win in St. Louis' home opener on 4/7 vs. CIN. Allowed the Reds one run over 6.0 IP on 7 hits, as STL won 5-3.
- Struck out a career-high 10 batters at NYM (4/23) including the first nine batters of the game, becoming just the 4th Cardinal (Gibson, Carlton, Vuckovich) to strike out 10 batters in 4.0 IP and the first since Pete Vuckovich (6/3/79 vs. LAD).
- Had not allowed more than 3 runs in any of his first 13 starts, prior to his 6/11 start. The last pitcher to allow 3 runs or less in 13 or more consecutive starts to begin a season was Pirates' James McDonald in 2012 (14 straight starts).

- Threw 2.0 scoreless innings in a Texas League (AA) rehab start with Springfield vs. Tulsa on 8/31. Pitched to catcher Tony Cruz and allowed one hit, hurling 34 pitches (24 strikes).
- Received a no decision in his final start of 2014 at ARI (9/26), tossing 5.0+ innings allowing two runs on five hits and retired 10 straight batters (10-of-last-11), in a game Cardinals won 7-6 in 10 innings.

2014 POSTSEASON: Was on the postseason roster for both the National League Division Series and N.L. Championship Series...did not make an appearance in the Division Series...was used once out of the bullpen in the NLCS and surrendered the series-ending three-run home run to Travis Ishikawa in the bottom of the 9th inning in Game 5 at SF (10/16)...it was his first game action since Sept. 26 at ARI (20 days).

- Selected as the starting pitcher for the National League in the 2014 All-Star Game in Minnesota. It was his third time selected to the All-Star Game, second appearance in the game (2010) and first as the starting pitcher. He was the first Cardinals pitcher to start the All-Star Game since Chris Carpenter in 2005.
- In 2014, finished 3rd in the National League Cy Young vote after placing 2nd to Dodgers' left-hander Clayton Kershaw in 2013. Also finished 2nd in 2010 behind Roy Halladay.
- Finished third in the National League Cy Young vote after the 2009 season, despite receiving the most first-place votes of any player. His finish was just four points shy of teammate Chris Carpenter for 2nd place and 10 behind Cy Young winner Tim Lincecum (SF Giants) for the second-tightest vote in the history of the award.
- He's the first STL pitcher since Steve Carlton to have three seasons with 10 or more road wins (RHP, Bob Gibson-7). Only Bartolo Colon (3), C.C. Sabathia (5) and Roy Halladay (3) have had three or more seasons of 10+ road wins since 2000.
- Won a Rawlings Gold Glove award in 2013 as voted on by N.L. managers & coaches and also in 2009. Was flawless in his N.L.- leading 61 total chances in 2013 and had 56 errorless chances in 2009. In six of seven seasons has committed one error or less (most was 2 in 2007).
- Missed the entire 2011 season after elbow ligament replacement surgery on his right elbow on 2/28/11.
- Among active MLB pitchers, ranks 3rd in winning percentage (.643), 16th in wins (119), 21st in strikeouts (1,306), 8th in complete games (21) and T6th in shutouts (9).
- Since 2010, leads all pitchers in complete games (18), T1st in shutouts (9), T6th in wins (73), ranks 5th in ERA (2.89), 8th in WHIP (1.09) and T4th with double plays induced (98) despite missing the entire 2011 season to injury.
- In his first All-Star Game appearance in 2010 in Anaheim, pitched a perfect 7th and fanned two in the N.L. win. Was named to the 2013 N.L. All-Star team by his peers, but did not pitch.
- Was the Darryl Kile Award recipient in 2008, voted on by his teammates.
- Named Comeback Player of the Year for 2012 by St. Louis chapter of BBWAA and Baseball Man of the Year in both 2013 and 2014.

2014 SEASON:

- Finished 3rd in the N.L. Cy Young vote (Kershaw & Cueto) and 8th in N.L. MVP vote.
- Started 32 games, marking his 6th career season and 3rd consecutive to start 30 or more games.
- Posted a 20-9 record, his second season with 20 wins (2010). Became the first Cardinals pitcher since Joaquin Andujar (1984-85) to win 20 games in two different seasons. Prior to Andujar it was Bob Gibson (1965-66, 68-70) in five seasons.
- Had 12 starts with 7.0 or more scoreless innings, the most by an MLB pitcher since 1916.
- Has 39 wins over the past two seasons (2013-14), tied with Max Scherzer for the most in MLB.
- His 53 wins, 98 games started and 667.1 innings pitched since 2012 are the most among NL pitchers.
- Among NL leaders, ranked T2nd with 20 wins, 3rd with his 2.38 ERA, 2nd with 227.0 IP, T15th with 179 strikeouts, 2nd with 5 complete games and T1st with 3 shutouts.
- Was one of three N.L. pitchers with a one-hit and a two-hit complete game (Madison Bumgarner & Andrew Cashner)
- His 18 complete games since the start of 2010 are tied with Roy Halladay for the most over that period. Has 9 shutouts since the start of 2010, tied with Clayton Kershaw for the most in that period.
- Hurled an N.L. co-leading three shutouts in 2014, his highest career single-season total.
- Ran off three scoreless inning streaks of 20.0 or more innings pitched. Relief pitcher Wade Davis (KC) was the only other pitcher with two streaks of 20.0 or more.
- His 25.0 inning scoreless streak (4/12-27) ranked 4th longest in N.L. The streak was snapped on 5/2 at CHI, 1.0 IP shy of his career-high streak of 26.0 scoreless innings.
- Joined teammate Lance Lynn as the first Cardinals pitchers with 175 or more strikeouts in three consecutive seasons since Bob Gibson (1970-72).

SECOND BASEMAN

CAREER:

- Finished third in the 2014 National League Rookie of the Year voting behind Jacob deGrom and Billy Hamilton.
- Named 2014 Rookie of the Year by St. Louis Chapter of BBWAA.
- Hit three postseason home runs in 2014, the most by a rookie second baseman in MLB history.
- Holds the Cardinals postseason record for total bases by a second baseman with 15 surpassing Tom Herr (1985).
- Became the fourth second baseman in postseason history to hit a walk-off home run (Game 2, NLCS vs. SF, 10/12).
- Hit a grand slam for his first career MLB home run. He also had a walk-off HR, multi-HR game and pinch-hit HR in 2014.
- Named Cardinals organization 2013 Minor League Player of the Year.

2014 SEASON:

- Began the season on the Opening Day roster and played in 113 games in St. Louis. Played 18 games in Memphis (AAA).
- Led team with 20 stolen bases, the most by a Cardinals player since Cesar Izturis (24) in 2008.
- Hit 12 home runs, becoming the youngest Cardinals second baseman to hit 10 or more home runs in a season since Rogers Hornsby hit 21 HR in 1921 at age 25.
- Hit first MLB home run, which was a grand slam, vs. KC (6/2) off James Shields. Became the first Cardinals player to hit a grand slam as his first HR since Jake Westbrook (2011), first second baseman since Felipe Lopez (2010) and rookie second baseman since Bo Hart (2003). Became the 12th youngest Cardinal to hit a grand slam (23 years, 236 days). Was the only Cardinals grand slam in 2014.
- Became the first Cardinals rookie since Colby Rasmus (2009) to tally 100 hits in a season.
- Batted .315 (23-73, 3 HR) vs. left-handed pitchers. Had 10 HR, 30 RBI and 14 SB in Cardinals wins.
- Posted 25 multi-hit games and two four-hit games (5/28 vs. NYY & 8/10 at BAL).
- Ranked 10th in the National League with a .341 BA with runners in scoring position and 2 outs.
- Had 28 two-out RBI, ranking 3rd for STL and T18th among all N.L. players. Batted .296 (34-115) with 2 outs.
- Started 100 games at second base and turned 70 double plays, 6th among NL 2nd basemen.
- Was optioned to Memphis (AAA) 4/27-5/14. Hit .344 (22-64) with 3 2Bs, 2 HRs and 10 RBI over 15 games, playing at second base each game.
- Voted National League Rookie of the Month in May, leading all N.L. rookies with a .333 BA. Was the first Cardinals rookie to win the award since Brian Barden in April of 2009.
- Placed on the 15-day disabled list with left shoulder soreness on 6/22, suffered after a diving catch in the field. Played three games at Memphis on a rehab assignment 7/1-6 (5-11, .455), coming off the DL on 7/6.
- Stole two bases in a game at CIN (5/25) and was successful in each of his first 10 career attempts.
- Had a .567 slugging percentage in July (T8th NL) and five home runs (T5th NL).
- Smacked home runs in consecutive games three times (7/8-9 vs. PIT, 7/11-12 at MIL, 8/31-9/1 vs. CHI/PIT).
- Hit 5 home runs over 7 days 7/6-12 after returning from the disabled list (.333, 8-24, 5 HR, 8 RBI, 1.000 slug).
- Hit first career walk-off home run on 7/8 vs. PIT after Matt Adams had done so the prior game (7/7 vs. PIT).
- Tallied his first multi-home run game vs. BOS (8/7) and scored a season-high three runs.

2014 POSTSEASON: Played in eight postseason games (3 NLDS, 5 NLCS)...hit three postseason home runs, the most in MLB history by a rookie second baseman...hit a walk-off home run in Game 2 of the NLCS (10/12) off Sergio Romo, the 4th walk-off home run in Cardinals postseason history joining Ozzie Smith (NLCS 5, 1985), Jim Edmonds (NLCS 6, 2004) and David Freese (WS 6, 2011). SCOUTING DEPARTMENT

The scouting department has employees devoted to seeking baseball talent in four unique areas: professional, college, high school and international. Professional Scouts analyze major and minor league players from other organizations and compile reports for potential trades and signings. Area Scouts live and work within an assigned geographic area of the United States and scout the amatuer ranks for talent. Each area scout is assigned a collegiate conference within their region to analyse and report. Crosscheckers verify top talent from coast to coast.

RODNY JIMENEZ
1982-2014

The St. Louis Cardinals lost a member of their scouting department in 2014, when Rodny Jimenez passed away unexpectedly.

Jimenez was signed by the Atlanta Braves out of the Dominican Republic on July 19, 1999, as a pitcher. He played in six minor league seasons, advancing as high as Class-A.

On February 22, 2012, Jimenez was hired by the St. Louis Cardinals as an area scout in his native Dominican Republic and was part of the MLB Scouting School Program in 2012. During his tenure with the Cardinals, he was instrumental in the signing of Alexander Reyes, one of the Cardinals top pitching prospects.

Rodny will be remembered as someone with a lot of passion for his family and the game of baseball, always looking to learn and improve on his craft and was a joy to be around.

He is survived by his wife, Jacqueline, and two children, Rodny, Jr. and Roselyn.

MIKE SHILDT — MANAGER

Mike Shildt begins his first season as the Memphis manager and seventh season overall as a manager in the Cardinals organization. He has compiled a record of 333-284 (.540) over his six seasons, winning three league championships in his three career playoff appearances.

Shildt won his first league championship at Johnson City in the Appalachian League in 2010 and followed it up with another title in 2011. In his first season at Double-A Springfield (2012), Shildt led the Cardinals to their team record 77 wins and first Texas League Championship defeating Frisco 3-1 after knocking off Tulsa 3-2 in the opening round. This marked his third consecutive title in his fourth year of managing in the minor leagues.

In 2011, Shildt's Johnson City team set a short-season franchise record with 45 wins, just a year after tying the previous mark of 42. While at Johnson City, Shildt compiled a 124-77 (.617) record over three seasons, averaging 41 wins per season and guided the team to their first championship since 1976. In his first year at the helm of Johnson City (2009), he led the squad to their best record in 13 years (37-30), a year removed from serving as the hitting coach for the squad in 2008.

Shildt began every season from 2004-07 serving as an area scout and player development instructor before moving on to coach for a Cardinals short-season team, first as hitting coach at New Jersey in 2004-05, bench coach in State College in 2006 and position coach for Batavia in 2007.

He earned the George Kissell Award in 2010 after his success at Johnson City as well as serving as the Cardinals Minor League Field and Spring Training Coordinator, a position he held from 2008-11. Shildt managed the Salt River Rafters of the Arizona Fall League to a 19-12 record in 2013, winning their final seven games, and finishing a half-game back of first place in the East Division.

Prior to joining the Cardinals organization, Shildt worked from 1999-2003 as an associate scout for the MLB Scouting Bureau and was head varsity coach at West Charlotte High School from 1994-96.

Shildt has five years of collegiate coaching under his belt working as the hitting coach and recruiting coordinator at both UNC-Charlotte and UNC-Asheville.

Shildt, 46, is a 1991 graduate of UNC-Asheville with a degree in business and currently resides in Matthews, N.C. He was a three-year letterwinner on the Bulldogs baseball team and grew up working for the Orioles Double-A team in Charlotte with Cal Ripken, Jr., and Eddie Murray, performing clubhouse detail and working the scoreboard. He is also co-director of a Charlotte-based non-profit organization, Baseball for Life.

MARK BUDASKA — HITTING COACH

Budaska begins his eighth season as Memphis hitting coach.

During his seven years at Memphis (2008-14), Budaska has tutored current Cardinals batters Jon Jay, Matt Carpenter, Daniel Descalso and Randal Grichuk, as well as former Cardinals' World Series MVP David Freese, who all posted career minor league years in Memphis before moving on to St. Louis.

In 2014, Memphis boasted the two highest individual totals for home runs and RBI in the Cardinals organization.

Budaska spent three seasons (2010-12) as the hitting and outfield coach for the Tigres de Aragua in the Venezuelan Winter League. The 2011 Tigres won the championship over the Tiburones de La Guaira.

Budaska previously served as hitting coach from 2004-07 at Triple-A Pawtucket in the Boston Red Sox system and had been with the Red Sox since 2002. In 2001, he coached for the Angels' Double-A Little Rock affiliate in the Texas League and saw the Travelers win the Texas League Championship, ranking fourth in the league with a .266 team average. Budaska was a hitting coach and first base coach for a major league team in Taiwan from 1998-2000.

The former switch-hitting outfielder played 10 years in the Oakland organization, including stints in the Majors in 1978 and 1981.

BRYAN EVERSGERD — PITCHING COACH

Eversgerd enters his third season in Memphis after spending two seasons in Springfield (AA) as pitching coach for the Double-A Cardinals. In his first season at Memphis, the Redbirds posted a 3.91 ERA, the second lowest in the Pacific Coast League, while limiting opponents to the fewest hits. Last season, the Redbirds 3.97 ERA ranked third, while firing 13 shutouts, ranking second in the league, and had a league best 43 saves.

While in Springfield, Eversgerd's 2012 staff registered a 3.83 team ERA and surrendered the second fewest hits en route to the Texas League Championship. The staff went on to hurl a postseason best 2.48 ERA over nine games in the Texas League playoffs. Eversgerd was awarded the George Kissell Award in 2012 for his efforts as voted on by his peers among the Cardinals minor league coaching staffs.

Eversgerd has been the pitching coach for two Cardinals Minor League Pitchers-of-the-Year in former Cardinals hurler Shelby Miller (2011) and Seth Maness (2012). In 2013, Eversgerd was the pitching coach for 2013 National League Championship Series MVP Michael Wacha, who spent the majority of the year in Memphis.

His coaching tenure began at the Cardinals' Carolina League affiliate in 2001 at Potomac, before taking a two-year hiatus and returning as pitching coach for Peoria in the Midwest League. He remained in the Midwest League at Peoria and Quad Cities from 2004-07 before joining Double-A Springfield from 2008-09 and a year at High-A Palm Beach in 2010.

Eversgerd began his playing career with the Cardinals, signing as a non-drafted free agent on June 14, 1989. He pitched a scoreless inning of relief in his Major League debut for the Cardinals on April 26, 1994, and picked up his first big-league win in his only Major League start on May 20, 1994, at Florida. The left-hander also pitched for Montreal and Texas before returning to St. Louis from 1998 to 2000.

Eversgerd, 46, graduated from Carlyle (Ill.) High School in 1987, playing college baseball at Kaskaskia Community College and leading the team to the 1989 sectional championship. He resides in Hoffman, Ill., with his wife, Lisa, daughter, Kristen (17) and son, Jacob (15).

DANN BILARDELLO — MANAGER

Bilardello enters his first season as manager of Springfield, sixth year managing in the Cardinals organization and 10th overall as a minor league manager. Since 2011, Bilardello has advanced a coaching level each season starting with his third and final year in Batavia (SS-A) in 2012, Peoria (A) in 2013 and Palm Beach (A) in 2014. This is his ninth year with the Cardinals organization, working as the minor league catching coordinator from 2007- 2009.

In 2012, Bilardello's Batavia squad posted a 44-32 record, finishing one game out of the wild card and two games behind the division leader after pulling off a nine-game win streak. His 2010 Batavia squad won the Pinckney Division crown in his first season at the helm. Last season's Palm Beach squad was 76-63.

The former Major League catcher brought four years of minor league managing experience from the Red Sox and Dodgers organizations. He coached the Wilmington Blue Rocks in the Carolina League during the 2005 season after three years managing the Dodgers Great Falls affiliate in the Pioneer League (2002) and Columbus in the South Atlantic League (2003-04). He led Great Falls to a Pioneer League Championship in 2002 with a record of 47-28 and was 4-1 in the playoffs.

Bilardello played all or part of eight Major League seasons as a catcher with Cincinnati (1983-85), Montreal (1986), Pittsburgh (1989-90) and San Diego (1991-92). He signed with the Dodgers after being chosen in the first round of the secondary phase of the 1978 June amateur draft. He played a career-high 109 games during his rookie season with the Reds, posting career bests in home runs (8) and RBI (38). He hit his first home run off Tom Seaver.

Bilardello, 55, resides in Naples, Fla., and has three children (two sons, Davis and Trey, and a daughter, Kammie). Davis was a left-handed pitcher drafted by the Cardinals in the 43rd round of the 2007 draft and played as high as Palm Beach (High-A). Trey is a professional golf caddie on the PGA Tour. Kammie was a two-sport athlete at Webber International University, playing tennis for four years and volleyball for three years.

ERIK PAPPAS — HITTING COACH

Pappas enters his second season as hitting coach for Springfield and his third in the Cardinals organization. In his two seasons as hitting coach, batters under Pappas have recorded the lowest team strikeout totals in the league at Peoria in 2013 and Springfield in 2014.

The former Major League catcher spent 2006-12 at the Cangelosi Baseball Academy in Orland Park, Ill., while also serving as a scout for the Texas Rangers from 2005-09.

Pappas played three seasons in the Major Leagues, the first with the Cubs in 1991 and his final two under manager Joe Torre for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1993-94. In his career, Pappas batted .242 with one home run and 35 RBI over 104 games. His lone home run came off Denny Neagle on June 14, 1993, vs. Pittsburgh at Busch Stadium. He was the Chicago Cubs Minor League Player of the year in 1989.

Pappas, 48, was a first round selection (6th overall) of the California Angels out of Mount Carmel High School in Illinois in the 1984 Major League draft. He played for Greece during the 2004 Summer Olympics in Athens. Pappas resides in Chicago, Ill.

JASON SIMONTACCHI — PITCHING COACH

Simontacchi enters his first season as the pitching coach for Springfield and third as a pitching coach in the Cardinals organization, holding the same post for Peoria in 2013-14.

In his first season as a pitching coach, Peoria's staff finished second in the league in ERA (3.54), strikeouts and fewest walks. They also surrendered the third fewest home runs.

The former Major League pitcher played four seasons in the big leagues with the St. Louis Cardinals from 2002 to 2004 and with the Washington Nationals in 2007. Simontacchi made his Major League debut on May 4, 2002, in a 3-2 win over Atlanta at Busch Stadium, throwing 7.0 innings and retiring the first 10 batters he faced in the victory. He then went on to win his first five decisions to earn June National League Rookie Pitcher of the Month honors. He would receive Cardinals Rookie Pitcher of the Year award from the St. Louis Chapter of the BBWAA and one third place vote for N.L. Rookie of the Year.

The right-hander started 24 games in his 2002 rookie season posting an 11-5 record over 143.1 innings. His final career marks were a 26-17 record in 53 starts, posting a 5.09 ERA over 355.2 innings.

He played college baseball at De Anza (Calif.) Junior College and the College of Idaho. Simontacchi, 41, was originally drafted by the Kansas City Royals in the 21st round of the 1996 draft. He resides in St. Louis with his wife, Paula, and three sons: Bradley (15), Nathan (13) and Landon (1).

OLIVER MARMOL — MANAGER

Marmol enters his first season as manager at Palm Beach and fourth year managing in the Cardinals organization. Last season, Marmol led the State College team to the New York-Penn League Championship, defeating Hudson Valley in two straight games when facing elimination, then defeated Tri-City for the crown. The Spikes posted 48 wins for the second consecutive season, a year after Marmol led State College to the best record in the New York-Penn League at 48-27.

His success in 2013 earned him the George Kissell Award as voted on by his coaching peers in the Cardinals organization.

The former Cardinals minor league infielder has skippered his teams to a combined 135-83 record (.619), averaging 45 wins per season as well as a playoff appearance in each of his first three years managing. He led the 2012 Johnson City squad to a 39-28 record and a playoff appearance in his first season as a manager. Marmol began his coaching career in 2011 as the hitting coach at the Gulf Coast League level under manager Steve Turco.

Marmol spent four years playing in the Cardinals system, finishing his career with the Palm Beach Cardinals in 2010. Marmol was originally drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in 2004 out of Dr. Phillips High School in Orlando, Fla., but decided to forego professional ball to attend college, where he batted .327 over three seasons at the College of Charleston. He was drafted out of college in the sixth round of the 2007 June First-Year Player Draft by St. Louis.

At 28 years old, Marmol is currently the second youngest manager in the Cardinals organization and resides in Orlando in the off-season with his wife, Amber.

RAMON ORTIZ — HITTING COACH

Ortiz begins his first season as hitting coach at Palm Beach and eighth season as a coach in the Cardinals organization. He has a total of 16 years coaching with the Cardinals; the last seven at hitting coach with the Gulf Coast League Cardinals (2008), Batavia (2009), Johnson City (2010-12) and State College (2013-14), plus nine seasons from 1987-95.

Last season, State College led the New-York Penn League in the triple crown categories as well as on-base percentage and slugging. The 2013 State College club led the league in batting, hits, doubles, RBI, slugging and on-base percentage, while boasting the batting champion and RBI leader.

In 2011, while with Johnson City, the Cardinals led the league in batting, runs, hits, doubles, slugging percentage and on-base plus slugging percentage, a year after leading the league in almost every major offensive statistical category.

Ortiz was previously in the Dodgers organization from 2005-07, last serving as hitting coach for the GCL Dodgers in 2007. Previous career experience came with two of the Tampa Bay Rays affiliates, coaching Hudson Valley in the New York-Penn League from 1999-2002 and two years at Bakersfield in the California League (2003-04).

The Venezuela native started his coaching career at the University of Central Venezuela from 1983-85 and began his professional coaching experience with the Cardinals in 1987, followed by three seasons (1996-98) with the Yankees.

Ortiz, 62, a former outfielder, played five seasons of pro baseball in the Expos and Twins systems, and resides in Tampa, Fla.

RANDY NIEMANN — PITCHING COACH

Niemann is the pitching coach with Palm Beach for the first time after serving his first two seasons with the Cardinals organization as pitching coach for Double-A Springfield.

In his first year as pitching coach for Springfield, Niemann's staff led the Texas League in strikeouts.

Prior to coaching with the Cardinals, Niemann was the bullpen coach for the 2012 Boston Red Sox before a late season promotion to pitching coach to conclude the 2012 season. Niemann spent 24 years in the Mets organization before joining the Red Sox, most recently as the pitching rehabilitation coordinator in 2011.

Niemann's playing career spanned eight seasons from 1979-87, with the Astros, Pirates, White Sox, Twins and the 1986 World Champion New York Mets, in which Niemann was 2-3 with a 3.79 ERA in 31 appearances. He finished his career with a 7-8 record and 4.64 ERA in 122 appearances totaling 200.0 innings.

Niemann, 58, and his wife, Mary Anne, have two sons, Daniel and Michael, and a daughter, Alexandra.

JOE KRUZEL — MANAGER

Joe Kruzel begins his second season as manager of Peoria and third year managing in the Cardinals organization (Johnson City, 2013). He spent the previous five seasons (2008-12) as hitting coach for the Cardinals Class-A affiliate in Quad Cities. The 2015 season marks his eighth season in the Cardinals organization.

Over two seasons as manager in the Cardinals organization, Kruzel's squads have a record of 108-98 (.524), and he holds a career mark of 139-129 (.519) including one season in the Reds organization.

As hitting coach in Quad Cities for the 2012 season, the team ranked third in the Midwest League in batting and led the league in home runs and RBI, smacking 107 round trippers with 649 runs driven in. In 2011, Quad Cities finished tops in the Midwest League in doubles, walks, on-base percentage and slugging percentage.

Kruzel came to the Cardinals after spending the 2006 and 2007 seasons in the Reds organization. In 2006, Kruzel was the hitting coach for the Gulf Coast League Reds before moving on to the manager position at Billings in 2007.

Prior to his time with the Reds, the veteran collegiate coach served as the assistant baseball coach at Miami (Ohio) University in 2005. He spent 15 seasons (1989-2003) at the University of Toledo, where he served as the assistant baseball coach from 1989-92 and then moved on to head coach from 1993-2003. Kruzel was named Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year in 1999 and coached Mitch Maier in 2003, who was the only first round draft pick (Kansas City Royals) in Toledo history and consensus first-team All-American. In addition to his coaching career, Kruzel played second base at Toledo from 1985-1988.

Kruzel, 49, resides in Hamilton, Ohio. His son, A.J., is an infielder for the Henderson State (AR) University baseball team and was drafted by the Cardinals in the 37th round of the 2013 draft, but did not sign.

JOBEL JIMENEZ — HITTING COACH

Jimenez begins his second season with Peoria and his ninth in the Cardinals organization.

He served as hitting coach for the Gulf Coast Cardinals in 2013 and began his career wtih St. Louis prior to the start of the 2007 season. Jimenez first served as hitting coach for the VSL Cardinals from 2007-2009.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Jimenez worked for six years (2001-06) with the Red Sox as a scout, outfield instructor and hitting coach in Venezuela and the Dominican Republic.

Jimenez, 36, also served as a Venezuelan scout and outfield instructor for the Marlins organization from 1999-2000.

A minor league outfielder in the Dodgers system for two seasons (1993-94), Jimenez moved to the scouting and coaching ranks and spent four seasons as an outfield instructor and VSL scout for the Dodgers from 1994-98.

DERNIER OROZCO — PITCHING COACH

Orozco begins his first season as pitching coach with Peoria following two seasons with State College in the short-season New York-Penn League. The 2015 season marks his 10th season coaching in the Cardinals organization, serving at four different levels of player development.

The 2014 State College pitching staff ranked second in the league in ERA (2.97) en route to the league championship in which they posted an outstanding 0.87 ERA over six postseason games including two shutouts. The 2013 State College squad led the New York-Penn League in ERA (2.80).

Orozco began his time with the Cardinals coaching in the Venezuelan Summer League from 2006-2008, and was also the pitching coach a fourth season in Venezuela in 2010. Orozco was pitching coach for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals in 2009 and 2011 before coaching at Batavia in 2012.

Orozco played six professional seasons in the Boston Red Sox organization as a right-handed pitcher. He posted a 1.88 ERA in 14 Venezuelan Summer League outings (three starts) in 2002, and went 4-2 over 14 games (29.2 IP) for the Gulf Coast League Red Sox in 2003, his final season.

Orozco, 33, resides in Venezuela in the off-season.

JOHNNY RODRIGUEZ — MANAGER

Rodriguez enters his first season as the manager of State College and sixth in the Cardinals organization, previously serving at Quad Cities in 2010-11, Palm Beach in 2012-13 and Johnson City in 2014. Rodriguez has won two league titles in his five years as a manager in the Cardinals organization.

Rodriguez's 2014 Johnson City squad won their third Appalachian League title in the last five years ousting Danville. Johnson City won three one-run games and won every game in which they faced elimination. In 2011, Rodriguez led Quad Cities to their first Midwest League title since 1991. Rodriguez was a hitting coach at Johnson City before moving to his managerial posts.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Rodriguez was hitting coach at Jamestown (2007-08) as a member of the Florida Marlins organization and had been with the Marlins since 2002, beginning as manager of the Jamestown affiliate.

Rodriguez's professional career spans over 25 years, starting out in the New York Yankees organization for 17 years before moving on to the Expos as a hitting coach in 2000-01. Prior coaching experience was gained at the college level at the University of Miami (Fla.), Miami-Dade Community College and at the nationally prominent high school baseball program at Westminster Christian High School (Fla.). He also has scouting experience with the Astros, Angels, Mets and Brewers.

In October of 2002, he led an amateur team filled with draft-eligible prospects to the championship of the Perfect Game/Baseball America World Wood Bat tournament held in Jupiter, Fla.

His son, Sean, is a middle infielder with the Pittsburgh Pirates and made his Major League debut with the Los Angeles Angels on April 18, 2008, vs. Seattle. Rodriguez, 58, resides in Miami, Fla.

ROGER LAFRANCOIS — HITTING COACH

LaFrancois enters his first season as hitting coach for State College after spending the last five seasons in the same role at Palm Beach (2013-14) in the Florida State League and Batavia (2010-12) in the New York-Penn League. Last season, Palm Beach ranked second in the FSL in hits and runs scored while Charlie Tilson finished second in the batting race.

LaFrancois has over 20 years of coaching experience at the minor league level serving at every level with several different Major League organizations including the White Sox, Giants, Mets, Expos and Braves. Prior to joining the Cardinals, he was a coach with Worcester of the Can American League (2008-2009) in Independent Baseball.

His playing days saw him as a catcher in the Boston Red Sox organization, spending eight years with the Red Sox, where he saw action in eight Major League games during the 1982 season batting .400 in his opportunity.

He is the founder and director of the Connecticut Dugout Club, and has also been a partner and director of the World Baseball Coaches Convention since 2003 and America's Game since 2001, in which coaches and athletes are instructed in the game of baseball. LaFrancois, 58, resides in Old Saybrook, Conn.

DARWIN MARRERO — PITCHING COACH

Marrero enters his first season as pitching coach with State College after spending the last two years (2013-14) in the same role with the Gulf Coast League Cardinals.

The 2014 Gulf Coast Cardinals pitching staff posted a 3.01 ERA, ranking 2nd in the league, while leading the league with eight shutouts and issuing the fewest walks and runs in the league.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Marrero was a pitching coach for the Sioux City Explorers in the American Association (2008). The Explorers staff compiled a league best ERA, boasted the Pitcher of the Year and the closer established a new league saves record. In 2005, he was pitching coach for the Capitales de Quebec in the Can-Am League.

Marrero's playing career lasted from 1998-2004 with the Montreal Expos organization, attaining his highest level at Double-A, as well as pitching eight seasons in the Venezuelan Winter League.

Marrero, 34, a Venezuela native, resides in Tampa, Fla., with his wife, Monica, and their three children, Darwin, Jr. (10), Nikary (7) and Sophia (6).

CHRIS SWAUGER — MANAGER

Swauger enters his first season as manager of the Johnson City Cardinals and second as a coach in the Cardinals organization, after having served as hitting coach for Johnson City during their 2014 championship season.

Swauger was originally drafted in the 26th round of the 2008 first-year player draft by the St. Louis Cardinals. He played 613 games over seven professional seasons beginning at short-season Batavia in 2008 and played as high as Triple-A Memphis in 2013, with one stop for eight games as a member of the Clearwater Phillies in 2014.

He was a member of two championship teams, Batavia in 2008 in the New York-Penn League and Springfield in 2012 in the Texas League. He had a memorable performance in Game 1 of the 2012 Texas League playoffs against Tulsa, leading the Cardinals back from a 6-0 deficit with three home runs, including the game-winner in the 10th inning.

Swauger, 28, played collegiately at The Citadel where he started every single game of his four-year career and still holds the record for single season and career triples at the institution. He is currently the youngest manager in the Cardinals organization, edging Oliver Marmol by 40 days. Swauger and Marmol were crosstown collegiate rivals at The Citadel and College of Charleston. He resides in Odessa, Fla.

GEORGE GREER — HITTING COACH

George Greer enters his first season as hitting coach at Johnson City and as a member of the Cardinals organization. He also serves as the Offensive Strategist for the Cardinals in player development.

Greer comes to the Cardinals after spending the previous nine seasons in the Mets organization as a hitting coach at Triple-A Las Vegas (2012-14), High-A Port St. Lucie (2009-11), Single-A Savannah (2008) and short-season Kingsport (2007). In 2006, Greer began his coaching career in professional baseball as a manager for the Mets' Brooklyn affiliate in the New York-Penn League.

Greer may be most recognized for his exemplary collegiate coaching career as he is the winningest coach in Wake Forest University history compiling a record of 608-382-4 (.612) over 17 seasons (1988-2005) producing 29 All-Americans. Prior to Wake Forest, Greer was the head coach at Davidson College (1981-87). In 23 years as a collegiate head coach, Greer won 714 games.

Originally drafted by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 17th round of the1968 draft, Greer played four seasons professionally. He led all Cardinals minor leaguers with 96 RBI in 1970 as a member of Modesto. In 1971, he helped win the Texas League Championship for Arkansas where he was a teammate of ex-Cardinals pitcher and broadcaster, Al Hrabosky.

Greer played collegiately at the University of Connecticut where he was a two-time All-American (1967-68). He was inducted to the Cape Cod League Hall of Fame in 2002, in recognition for leading Chatham to the finals in three straight years (1965-67), culminating with being elected captain of Team USA in the Pan-Am Games in Winnipeg, Manitoba, where he hit a walk-off single against the Cuban National Team for the USA's only gold medal in the PanAm Games.

Greer, 68, resides in Radford, Va., with his wife, Dr. Becky Greer, the superintendent of Radford City Public Schools. The couple have three children, Andy, Chelzey and Chip, and five grandchildren.

BILLY VILLANUEVA — PITCHING COACH

Villanueva begins his first year as a pitching coach at Johnson City after serving in the same capacity for the Dominican Summer League Cardinals the previous seven. He joined the Cardinals organization in 2005. After serving as an assistant pitching instructor at the Cardinals Jupiter, Fla., complex in 2008, he returned to coaching in 2009.

Villanueva was the pitching coach when current St. Louis Cardinals pitcher Carlos Martinez won the 2010 Dominican Summer League ERA title with a 0.76 ERA.

A former right-handed pitcher, Villanueva signed with the Marlins in 1995 and pitched six seasons in their minor league system. Overall, Villanueva was 14-28 with a 3.95 ERA in 77 career minor league games (61 starts). Villanueva also played for the Tigres de Licey from 1998-2001 in the Caribbean Baseball Series.

STEVE TURCO — MANAGER

Turco enters his seventh season as manager of the Gulf Coast League club and 15th as a manager in the Cardinals organization. Turco has led the GCL Cardinals to Division titles in two of the last three seasons. The 2014 squad finished with the second best record in the league at 37-23 before bowing out to the Red Sox in the semifinals.

In 2012, Turco took the Cardinals to their first Division Championship and playoff appearance, posting a team-high 34 wins en route to a 34-24 record. In 2011, he led the rookie Redbirds to a 31-win season. Through five seasons at the Gulf Coast level, Turco has compiled a 179-165 (.520) mark. His overall managerial mark stands at 446-448 in 14 seasons.

His success instructing the upcoming Cardinals and steady improvement over his four years at the Gulf Coast League played a big part in winning the George Kissell Award in 2011 as voted on by his coaching and player development peers.

After spending nine seasons as a Cardinals scout, Turco returned to managing in 2009 when he took over as manager of the Gulf Coast League club. That 2009 team produced two Major League players in St. Louis in Trevor Rosenthal and Keith Butler, followed by Sam Tuivailala and Oscar Taveras in 2010, Michael Wacha in 2012 and Marco Gonzales in 2013.

Previous managerial stops in the Cardinals chain included Johnson City for six seasons from 1994-99 and New Jersey in the New York-Penn League from 1992-93. In 1996, he led Johnson City to an Appalachian League playoff berth with a then-team record mark of 42-26, a win total which held up until 2011.

Turco has served as a coach in three seasons, starting in Springfield in 1985 and Savannah in 1986. After a four-year stint as a high school baseball coach, he returned to the professional level in 1991 to coach at Hamilton.

Originally signed by the Cardinals in 1978 as an infielder, Turco played in the minor leagues from 1979-1984. Turco, 58, graduated from Cooper City High School in Florida in 1975 and earned a physical education degree from Florida State University in 1979. He resides in Clearwater, Fla.

ROBERTO ESPINOZA — HITTING COACH

Roberto Espinoza begins his second season as a coach in the Cardinals organization and second at Johnson City.

Last season, Espinoza began the season as the Johnson City hitting coach before taking on the role of bullpen assistant in St. Louis where he helped catch bullpens and translate for Spanish-speaking players to the media.

Espinoza was originally signed by the Cardinals as a non-drafted free agent out of Palo Negro, Venezuela in March of 2006.

The former Cardinals minor league catcher played in the organization for six seasons before an injury sidelined him during the 2011 and 2012 seasons, when he pursued a career in coaching. Espinoza played in 202 games, advancing as far as High-A Palm Beach in 2010.

At 26, Espinoza is the youngest coach in the Cardinals minor league system and resides in Jupiter, Fla. in the off-season.

CALE JOHNSON — PITCHING COACH

Cale Johnson enters his first season as pitching coach for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals and in the Cardinals organization.

Johnson was originally drafted by the Cardinals in the 41st round of the 2009 first-year player draft out of McKendree University in Lebanon, Ill.

He pitched three seasons in the Cardinals organization starting with the GCL Cardinals and Johnson City in 2009, Johnson City in 2010 and the Midwest League Champion Quad Cities team in 2011. Johnson compiled career marks of 8-9 with a 3.81 ERA over 55 appearances and 15 starts.

While pitching at McKendree, Johnson was named the American Midwest Conference Pitcher of the Year in back-to-back seasons in 2008 and 2009 and posted a 21-7 record over his final three seasons with the Bearcats including 24 complete games.

The past two years, Johnson , 27, has worked as a private pitching and hitting instructor for Back-2-Back, a training facility in Highland, Ill. He resides in Highland, Ill., with his wife, Jessica, and their son, Maclin.

DOMINICAN SUMMER LEAGUE CARDINALS (ROOKIE)

Cardinals Academy
Jubey, La Malena
Boca Chica, Dominican Republic

Academy Administrator: Aaron Rodriguez
Athletic Trainer: Koji Kanemura
Strength & Conditioning: Carlos Nin

FRAY PENICHE — MANAGER

Peniche begins his fifth season as manager of the Dominican Summer League Cardinals and has compiled a 160-193 record (.453).

He spent 12 seasons in the Detroit Tigers organization, the most recent stint as manager of the DSL Tigers (2007-10). Peniche began his coaching career with the Oneonta Tigers (A) in 1999, then moved on as a coach with the DSL Tigers from 2000-2006. He was promoted to manager of the DSL Tigers in 2007 and led the team to a 45-20 record and a second place finish in their division.

Peniche was signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Tigers, playing four seasons in their minor league system. He played three seasons (1995-97) with the Gulf Coast League Tigers (R) and one season (1998) in the New York-Penn League with the Jamestown Jammers. Peniche, 38, resides in Santo Domingo Este, Dominican Republic, with his wife, Sandy, and two children: Aaron (15) and Fray Antonio (11).

ERICK ALMONTE — COACH

Erick Almonte begins his second year as a coach in the Cardinals organization after serving in the same capacity in 2014 with the Dominican Summer League entry.

Almonte played professionally for 16 years which included three different seasons in the Major Leagues. He played in 55 Major League games batting .233 with two home runs and 14 RBI, and was a member of the American League Champion New York Yankees teams in 2001 and 2003. He also played in 16 games for the National League Central Champion Milwaukee Brewers in 2011.

He was signed as a non-drafted free agent out of the Dominican Republic by the New York Yankees in 1996. His career included four Major League organizations: the Yankees (1997-03), Rockies (2004), Tigers (2006-08) and Brewers (2009-12).

Almonte, 37, resides in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic. His brother, Hector, pitched in parts of two seasons with the Florida Marlins, Boston Red Sox and Montreal Expos.

JOHN MATOS — COACH

Matos begins his sixth season with the Cardinals organization after being hired prior to the start of the 2010 season.

He has worked all six seasons as a coach for the Dominican Summer League Cardinals. One of his main responsibilities includes working with the infielders of the DSL team.

A former infielder, Matos signed with the Cincinnati Reds in 1999 and played two seasons in their minor league system. The 38-year-old is a native of Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.

GIOVANNI CARRARA — PITCHING COACH

Giovanni Carrara joins the Cardinals and enters his first season as the pitching coach for the Dominican Summer League team.

Carrara was originally signed as a non-drafted free agent out of Venezuela by the Toronto Blue Jays in 1990. He pitched in parts of 10 Major League seasons (1995-2006), appearing in games with the Blue Jays, Reds, Rockies, Dodgers and Mariners. He posted a 29-18 career record with a 4.69 ERA over 313 games, pitching primarily in relief and making 18 starts.

Arguably, his top season came in 2004 when he went 5-2 with two saves and a 2.18 ERA over 42 appearances as an integral part of the Dodgers bullpen. The Dodgers claimed the National League West Division that season, and Carrara made three post-season appearances before his team fell to St. Louis in the National League Division Series. Carrara pitched in a career-best 72 games at the age of 37 in 2005, winning a career-high seven games in a relief role.

Carrara, 47, represented Italy in the 2007 Euros due to his parents heritage from Italy. He resides in El Tigre, Venezuela, in the off-season.

THE DARRYL KILE AWARD

At its annual dinner in January of 2003, the St. Louis Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America announced the creation of the Darryl Kile Award. It is given annually to the Cardinal player, by vote of his teammates, who demonstrates the qualities that Darryl brought to the clubhouse every day: those of a good teammate, a great friend, a fine father and a humble man. A veteran of 331 big league starts, Darryl was never on the disabled list at the Major League level and prided himself on never missing a start. The award was not given in 2002 in honor of Darryl.

RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS

In the 123-year history of the St. Louis Cardinals, 14 individuals have enjoyed such distinguished careers on the field, in the dugout, or from the owner's box or broadcast booth that their uniform numbers have been retired by the organization. Only the New York Yankees (17 numbers/18 individuals) have recognized more individuals among Major League Baseball franchises. The honored Redbirds' uniform numbers appear in two areas at Busch Stadium – on the left-field wall and below the main scoreboard in right-center field.

Uniform No. 42 was retired by Major League Baseball in 1997 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Jackie Robinson breaking the color barrier. Robinson played for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1947 to 1956. He was the National League Rookie of the Year in 1947, the Most Valuable Player in 1949 and a five-time All-Star. Robinson was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962. The Cardinals subsequently retired No. 42 for Hall of Fame relief pitcher Bruce Sutter in 2006.

The most-recent Redbird so honored was manager Tony La Russa, who returned to Busch Stadium on May 11, 2012, for a pregame ceremony during which his No. 10 was retired before a sellout crowd. He also was presented a key to the city by St. Louis Mayor Francis Slay.

OZZIE SMITH
SHORTSTOP

1

FULL NAME: Osborne Earl Smith
HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 150 BATS: Both THROWS: Right
BORN: 12/26/54 at Mobile, Alabama
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1982-96
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996

Ozzie Smith is widely regarded as the finest fielding shortstop of all time. After being labeled as a good-field, no-hit performer early in his career, he developed into a bona fide offensive threat, as well.

The Cardinals acquired Smith from the San Diego Padres in exchange for shortstop Garry Templeton on Feb. 11, 1982. It proved to be one of the greatest trades in franchise history. Smith was a key element in St. Louis' success in the 1980s, and he became one of the city's most-popular citizens.

A lifetime .231 batter when he arrived in St. Louis, Smith promptly improved that figure to .248 for the 1982 season as the Cardinals won the World Series over the Milwaukee Brewers. In 1985, Smith batted at a .276 clip with a career-high six home runs and 54 RBI. He stunned the baseball world with a game-winning homer in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game 5 of the National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers. The blast – on a 1-2 pitch from reliever Tom Niedenfuer – was Smith's first as a left-handed batter in 3,009 at-bats and prompted Cardinals' broadcaster Jack Buck to exclaim, "Go crazy, folks! Go crazy!" Smith put together his finest season at the plate in 1987, with career highs of a .303 average and 75 RBI, as the Cardinals captured their third N.L. pennant in six seasons. He finished as runner-up for the Most Valuable Player Award to Andre Dawson of the Chicago Cubs.

Throughout his offensive progression, Smith seemingly made every play defensively, both the routine and the spectacular. "The Wizard" won 13 consecutive Gold Glove Awards between 1980 and 1992, setting a major league record with an all-time low of eight errors in 1991. Smith's most eye-popping play came Aug. 5, 1986, against the Philadelphia Phillies at Busch Stadium. He took off on a short fly ball to left field hit by Von Hayes and, with his back to the plate, flew parallel to the ground and completely stretched out to make the catch. Among shortstops, Smith is baseball's career leader in assists (8,375) and total chances (12,624) and ranks second in double plays (1,590). He led the N.L. in fielding percentage seven times and had a career .978 mark. In 2007, Smith was named the shortstop on the All-Time Rawlings Gold Glove team, selected to honor the 50th anniversary of the Gold Glove Award.

Smith was selected to 15 All-Star Games and started 11 of them. At the time of his retirement following the 1996 season, he had received more votes in fan balloting for the Mid-Summer Classic than any other player in N.L. history (27,597,904). On the Cardinals' career lists, Smith ranks second in walks (876); third in games played (1,990), at-bats (7,160) and stolen bases (433); seventh in runs (991) and hits (1,944); and 10th in doubles (338).

Held in high esteem for his civic-mindedness, Smith received the Lou Gehrig Award (presented to the player who best exhibits the character and integrity of Lou Gehrig both on and off the field) in 1989; the Branch Rickey Award (in recognition of his exceptional community service) in 1994; and the Roberto Clemente Award (presented to the player who best exemplifies the game of baseball, sportsmanship, community involvement and the individual's contribution to his team) in 1995.

Smith was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 2002, earning 92 percent of the votes from the Baseball Writers Association of America, and an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014. He was voted the shortstop on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005.

RED SCHOENDIENST

SECOND BASEMAN/MANAGER

2

FULL NAME: Albert Fred (Red) Schoendienst
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 170 BATS: Both THROWS: Right
BORN: 2/2/23 at Germantown, Illinois
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1945-56, 1961-76, 1979-95
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996

The name Albert "Red" Schoendienst is synonymous with Cardinals' baseball. After all, he wore the uniform for some 45 seasons as a player, coach and manager and still is involved with the organization as special assistant to the general manager.

It all started in 1945, when Schoendienst joined the club to fill in for left fielder Stan Musial, who was serving in the U.S. Army. Schoendienst batted .278 with 47 RBI and a National League-leading 26 stolen bases. The following year, Musial returned to the Cardinals, and Schoendienst moved to third base and then shortstop before settling in at second base. St. Louis won the World Series over the Boston Red Sox as Schoendienst began to develop into one of the best hitting and fielding second basemen of all time.

In 1953, Schoendienst put together his finest season. He established career highs of a .342 batting average – second in the league to Carl Furrillo of the Brooklyn Dodgers (.344), 15 home runs and 79 RBI. In a surprising trade, Schoendienst was dealt to the New York Giants along with outfielder Jackie Brandt, pitcher Dick Littlefield, catcher Bill Sarni and shortstop Bobby Stephenson in exchange for shortstop Alvin Dark, catcher Ray Katt, pitcher Don Liddle and outfielder Whitey Lockman on June 14, 1956.

The following year, Schoendienst was traded to the Milwaukee Braves, who won the 1957 World Series and the 1958 N.L. pennant. He subsequently returned to St. Louis in 1961. On the Cardinals' career lists, Schoendienst ranks fourth in at-bats (6,841) and pinch hits (53), fifth in games played (1,795), sixth in runs (1,025) and hits (1,980), seventh in doubles (352), and eighth in total bases (2,657). He led the N.L. with 200 hits in 1957, and seven times he either led or tied for the league lead in fielding percentage.

Schoendienst served as a coach on the 1964 World Championship team and was named manager when Johnny Keane resigned at the conclusion of the season. Schoendienst piloted St. Louis to a World Series victory over the Red Sox in 1967 and another N.L. pennant in 1968 en route to a 12-year tenure as skipper, the longest in franchise history until Tony La Russa surpassed him in 2008. Schoendienst ranks second in franchise annals with 1,041 wins.

A 10-time N.L. All-Star, Schoendienst socked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning of the 1950 Mid-Summer Classic off Ted Gray of the Detroit Tigers. It marked the switch-hitter's first career homer batting right-handed. Schoendienst later managed the Senior Circuit to victories in 1968 and 1969. After a stint as coach with the Oakland A's in 1977 and 1978, Schoendienst came back to St. Louis as a coach from 1979 to 1995. He filled in as interim manager in 1980 and 1990. Schoendienst was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1989 by the Veterans Committee and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014. He was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 1987.

STAN MUSIAL

OUTFIELDER/FIRST BASEMAN

6

FULL NAME: Stanley Frank Musial
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 175 BATTED: Left THREW: Left
BORN: 11/21/20 at Donora, Pennsylvania
DIED: 1/19/13 at St. Louis, Missouri
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1941-44, 1946-63
NUMBER RETIRED: 1963

Simply stated, Stan Musial is "The Man." Not only is he the greatest player in Cardinals' history, he also is the most popular.

Musial played his entire 22-year career as an outfielder and first baseman in St. Louis. He is the franchise's career leader in virtually every batting category: games played (3,026), at-bats (10,972), runs (1,949), hits (3,630), doubles (725), triples (177), home runs (475), RBI (1,951), walks (1,599) and total bases (6,134). His .331 average is fourth behind Rogers Hornsby (.359), Johnny Mize (.336) and Joe Medwick (.335). And, despite being an everyday player most of his career, Musial ranks seventh with 35 pinch-hits.

After initially joining the Cardinals late in 1941, Musial arrived for good the following season, beginning a stretch of 16 straight years in which he batted .300 or better. In 1943, Musial led the National League with a .357 average, 220 hits, 48 doubles and 20 triples en route to earning the first of his three Most Valuable Player awards. Musial also was named MVP in 1946 (led league with .365 average, 124 runs, 228 hits, 50 doubles and 20 triples) and 1948 (topped N.L. with .376 average, 135 runs, 230 hits, 46 doubles, 18 triples and 131 RBI). All told, the sweet-swinging left-handed batter paced the Senior Circuit in batting seven times.

A member of three World Championship teams (1942, 1944 and 1946), Musial was chosen to play in 24 All-Star Games (tied for the most in major league history with Hank Aaron and Willie Mays). His six home runs are the most in Mid-Summer Classic annals. He won the 1955 game with a 12th-inning homer off Frank Sullivan of the Boston Red Sox at County Stadium in Milwaukee.

On May 13, 1958, Musial collected the 3,000th hit of his career with a pinch-hit double off Moe Drabowsky of the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field. Musial finished his career with 3,630 hits. At the time of his retirement, he held major league records for extra-base hits and total bases and N.L. marks for runs, hits, doubles and RBI. He still has the fourth-most hits in baseball history – behind Pete Rose (4,256), Ty Cobb (4,190) and Hank Aaron (3,771).

Following his playing days, Musial was a long-time senior vice-president with the Cardinals and served as general manager when they won the 1967 World Series over the Boston Red Sox.

Musial was the first player in Cardinals' history to have his uniform number retired, and he was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 1969, receiving 93 percent of the votes from the Baseball Writers Association of America. He was selected to the Major League Baseball All-Century team in 1999 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

More than anything else, the personable Musial was a great emissary for all that is good about the game of baseball. A bronze statue of Musial stands outside Busch Stadium with the following words: "Here stands baseball's perfect warrior. Here stands baseball's perfect knight." In 2010, Musial was chosen by President Barack Obama to receive the Presidential Medal of Freedom - the highest civilian honor for a United States citizen.

ENOS SLAUGHTER

9

FULL NAME: Enos Bradsher Slaughter
HEIGHT: 5-9 WEIGHT: 190 BATTED: Left THREW: Right
BORN: 4/27/1916 at Roxboro, North Carolina
DIED: 8/12/2002 at Durham, North Carolina
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1938-42, 1946-53
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996

He didn't have the nickname, but Enos Slaughter was a genuine "Charlie Hustle." Throughout his career, he was known for his all-out style of play.

Slaughter dashed into baseball immortality in Game 7 of the 1946 World Series against the Boston Red Sox. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the eighth inning, Slaughter led off with a single. He remained at first base as the next two batters were retired and then took off to steal second with left fielder Harry Walker at the plate. Walker stroked a double into center field, and Boston's Leon Culberson threw the ball to shortstop Johnny Pesky. While Pesky hesitated on the relay, Slaughter kept on running, ignoring third base coach Mike Gonzalez's stop sign and scoring what proved to be the series-deciding run.

Long before his "Mad Dash," Slaughter was a bona fide all-star. He broke into the major leagues with the Cardinals in 1938 and the next year led the National League with 52 doubles while batting .320. It was the first of four straight seasons in which Slaughter batted at a .300 clip. In 1942, he had a .318 average – second in the N.L. to Ernie Lombardi of the Boston Braves (.330) – and league-leading totals of 188 hits and 17 triples. St. Louis' outfield of Slaughter in right, Terry Moore in center and Stan Musial in left is regarded as the best in franchise history. The Cardinals won the 1942 World Championship over the New York Yankees.

After a three-year stint in the service, Slaughter returned to the Cardinals in 1949 and topped the league with 130 RBI to go with a .300 average and 18 home runs. In 1950 and 1952, Slaughter drove in 101 runs while hitting fewer than 15 home runs. No other player in major league history has accomplished that feat twice.

On April 11, 1954, Slaughter was traded to the Yankees for outfielder Bill Virdon, pitcher Mel Wright and minor league outfielder Emil Tellinger. Upon being told of the deal, Slaughter sat in front of his locker and cried. On the Cardinals' career lists, he ranks third in triples (135) and RBI (1,148); fourth in walks (839); fifth in games played (1,820), at-bats (6,775), runs (1,071), hits (2,064) and total bases (3,138); and sixth in doubles (366). He batted .300 in eight of his 13 seasons with the Cardinals.

Slaughter subsequently played for the Kansas City Athletics (1955-56) before returning to the Yankees (1956-59) and finishing his career with the Milwaukee Braves (1959). The Veterans Committee elected the 10-time All-Star, who was nicknamed "Country," into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1985, and he was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

TONY La RUSSA

MANAGER

10

FULL NAME: Anthony La Russa Jr.
BORN: 10/4/1944 at Tampa, Florida.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1996-2011
NUMBER RETIRED: 2012

Tony La Russa was tantamount with winning.

As manager of the Cardinals from 1996 to 2011, La Russa amassed 1,408 victories. He became the winningest manager in franchise history Aug. 31, 2007, surpassing Red Schoendienst with No. 1,042. La Russa also won championships in St. Louis: eight division titles, three National League pennants and the 2006 and 2011 World Series. All told, the Cardinals made nine postseason appearances in La Russa's 16 seasons at the helm, and his teams finished first, second or third in the N.L. Central Division 13 times.

His finest hour may have been his last. Trailing the Texas Rangers three games to two in the 2011 World Series – and twice down to their final strike in Game 6 – the Cardinals rallied to force Game 7 and went on to capture the franchise's 11th world championship. It capped a magical two-month odyssey for the ball club, which had been staving off elimination seemingly at every turn since Aug. 25, when it trailed the N.L. wild card race by 10 1/2 games, and made the playoffs on the season's final day.

When La Russa announced his retirement Oct. 31, 2011, his 16 years of continuous service were the most among active managers/head coaches in the four major professional sports leagues.

Prior to the Cardinals, La Russa managed the Chicago White Sox (1979-86) and Oakland A's (1986-95). Over 33 seasons, he totaled 2,728 victories, ranking third in Major League Baseball history behind Connie Mack (3,731) and John McGraw (2,763). La Russa managed 5,097 games, second to Mack (7,755).

La Russa is the only manager to win multiple pennants in both leagues and one of two to win a World Series title in both, following Sparky Anderson. La Russa's 70 postseason victories (50 with St. Louis, 19 with Oakland and 1 with Chicago) rank second to Joe Torre's 84 among big league skippers.

In Oakland, La Russa piloted the A's to four division titles, three American League pennants and the 1989 World Championship. He is the A's franchise leader with 798 wins. The 1983 White Sox won the A.L. Western Division to make their first postseason appearance in 24 years.

La Russa and Leo Durocher are the only managers in major league history to win 500 games with three different teams. La Russa was named Major League Manager of the Year in 1983 and 1996; A.L. Manager of the Year in 1983, 1988 and 1992; and N.L. Manager of the Year in 2002. La Russa is the only manager to win an All-Star Game in both leagues, and he had a 4-2 record in the Midsummer Classic.

A native of Tampa, Fla., La Russa played second base, shortstop and third base in the majors for parts of six seasons with the Kansas City A's (1963), Oakland (1968-71), Atlanta (1971) and Chicago Cubs (1973).

Nineteen years before becoming manager of the Cardinals, La Russa served as a player-coach for the organization's New Orleans Triple-A affiliate in 1977. He began his managerial career a year later in the White Sox minor league system with Double-A Knoxville.

La Russa is a 1978 graduate of the Florida State University College of Law. He passed the bar exam in 1979 and became one of five lawyer/managers in baseball history, joining Monte Ward, Hughie Jennings, Miller Huggins and Branch Rickey.

In 2014, La Russa was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Elaine, are the founders of Tony La Russa's Animal Rescue Foundation, which saves abandoned dogs and cats and finds them homes.

KEN BOYER
THIRD BASEMAN/MANAGER

14

FULL NAME: Kenton Lloyd Boyer
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 200 BATTED: Right THREW: Right
BORN: 5/20/31 at Liberty, Missouri
DIED: 9/7/82 at St. Louis, Missouri
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1955-65, 1971-72, 1978-80
NUMBER RETIRED: 1984

Only one player in Cardinals' history has hit for the cycle twice. Ken Boyer accomplished the feat Sept. 14, 1961, against the Chicago Cubs and June 16, 1964, against the Houston Colt .45s.

Boyer was a solid all-around third baseman. He hit for average and power and earned five Gold Glove Awards for his fielding prowess. From 1958 to 1963, he averaged 26 home runs and 98 RBI to go with a .304 batting average. Then in 1964, Boyer was named the National League Most Valuable Player after batting .295 with 24 homers and a league-leading 119 RBI. In the World Series against the New York Yankees, Boyer clubbed a grand slam in Game 4 to give the Cardinals a 4-3 victory and contributed three hits and three runs to help St. Louis win the seventh and deciding game, 7-5.

An N.L. All-Star in 1956 and from 1959 to 1964, Boyer hit a two-run homer in the second 1960 game at Yankee Stadium and a solo blast in the 1964 contest at Shea Stadium. He was a .348 batter (8-for-23) in the Mid-Summer Classic.

"The Captain" was traded to the New York Mets on Oct. 20, 1965, in exchange for pitcher Al Jackson and third baseman Charley Smith. On the Cardinals career lists, Boyer ranks third in home runs (255); fifth in RBI (1,001); sixth in at-bats (6,334) and total bases (3,011); eighth in games played (1,667), runs (988) and hits (1,855); and ninth in walks (631). His seven grand slams are tied for third in club history behind Albert Pujols (12) and Stan Musial (9).

Being a native Missourian, Boyer was always a Cardinal at heart. He returned to the organization as a minor league manager in 1970 and again from 1973 to 1976 and served as a major league coach in 1971 and 1972. He replaced Vern Rapp as manager of the big league club on April 29, 1978, and piloted the Cardinals to an 86-76 record and third-place finish in the N.L. East Division the following year. But, in 1980, with expectations high, the Cardinals never got on track, and Boyer was dismissed June 8 after a 6-4 loss in the first game of a double-header against the Montreal Expos dropped their record to 18-33.

Boyer was diagnosed with lung cancer in the early 1980s, and the disease ultimately took his life in 1982 at just 51 years of age. He was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

DIZZY DEAN

17

FULL NAME: Jay Hanna (Dizzy) Dean
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 182 BATTED: Right THREW: Right
BORN: 1/16/10 at Lucas, Arkansas
DIED: 7/17/74 at Reno, Nevada
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1930, 1932-37
NUMBER RETIRED: 1974

Dizzy Dean was the prototypical member of the "Gas House Gang." The right-handed pitcher was one of baseball's zaniest characters. He also was a warrior and a winner.

After a cup of coffee with the Cardinals in 1930, Dean became a mainstay two years later. He put together his best season in 1934, going 30-7 with a 2.66 ERA and 195 strikeouts. Dean led the National League in wins and strikeouts and ranked second in ERA en route to being named the Most Valuable Player. He is the only pitcher in Cardinals' history to win 30 games and the last N.L. hurler to accomplish the feat. St. Louis won the World Series that year over the Detroit Tigers four games to three, with Dean and his brother, Paul, accounting for all four victories. Dizzy fired a six-hit shutout in an 11-0 Game 7 win.

Dean, who led the league with 28 wins in 1935, was selected to four consecutive All-Star Games from 1934 to 1937. He was the winning pitcher in 1936 and the loser in 1937. But Dean lost more than the game in 1937. A line drive off the bat of Cleveland Indians' outfielder Earl Averill in the third inning broke one of Dean's toes. Dean refused to take time off to let the injury heal, and he began utilizing an unnatural pitching delivery that led to an arm injury from which he never fully recovered.

On April 16, 1938, the Cardinals traded Dean to the Chicago Cubs in exchange for pitchers Clyde Shoun and Curt Davis, outfielder Tuck Stainback and $185,000. On the Cardinals' career lists, Dean ranks third in strikeouts (1,087); fourth in winning percentage (.641); sixth in wins (134), complete games (141) and shutouts (23); and ninth in innings pitched (1,736).

Dean was known for his fun-loving lifestyle and story telling as much as his success. In a doubleheader against the Brooklyn Dodgers at Sportsman's Park on Sept. 21, 1934, Dizzy authored a three-hit shutout in the opener and Paul followed with a no-hitter. "Gee whiz," Dizzy said afterwards. "If I'd a known Paul was gonna do it, I'd a thrown one, too."

Following his playing days, Dean was a colorful broadcaster who became an ambassador for baseball. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1953 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

LOU BROCK

20

FULL NAME: Louis Clark Brock
HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 170 BATS: Left THROWS: Left
BORN: 6/18/39 at El Dorado, Arkansas
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1964-79
NUMBER RETIRED: 1979

If it's been said once, it's been said a million times. The Cardinals' acquisition of outfielder Lou Brock from the Chicago Cubs on June 15, 1964, ranks as perhaps the greatest steal in baseball history. St. Louis traded pitchers Ernie Broglio and Bobby Shantz and outfielder Doug Clemens in exchange for Brock and pitchers Jack Spring and Paul Toth.

Over the course of his career with the Cardinals, Brock established himself as the most prolific base stealer in baseball history to that time. His 938 stolen bases stood as the major league record until Rickey Henderson bettered the mark in 1991. Brock's total remains the National League standard, and he owns the major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals. Brock led the N.L. in thefts on eight occasions (1966 to 1969 and 1971 to 1974). He set the season record with 118 in 1974, bettering Maury Wills' mark of 104 during the 1962 campaign. In 1978, the N.L. announced that its annual stolen base leader would receive the Lou Brock Award, making Brock the first active player to have an award named after him.

But Brock was more than a base burglar. He was a career .293 batter with 3,023 hits. Seven times he batted at a .300 or better clip. In 1967, Brock slugged 21 home runs and had 76 RBI from the leadoff spot. He also had 52 stolen bases, making him the first player in baseball history with 20 homers and 50 steals. The following year, Brock topped the N.L. in doubles (46), triples (14) and stolen bases (62), becoming the first player in the Senior Circuit to do so since Honus Wagner of the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1908. Brock joined the 3,000-hit club Aug. 13, 1979, with a fourth-inning single off Dennis Lamp of the Chicago Cubs at Busch Stadium. Brock's 3,023 career hits rank 24th on baseball's all-time list through 2014.

Upon his arrival in St. Louis, Brock paid immediate dividends, batting .348 for the balance of the 1964 season and propelling the Cardinals from eighth place in the N.L. to a World Championship over the New York Yankees. The Cardinals won the World Series again in 1967 over the Boston Red Sox and were N.L. champions in 1968. Brock was at his best in postseason play. His .391 career batting average (34-for-87) ranks as the third-best in World Series history, while his 14 stolen bases are tied for the most all-time with Eddie Collins of the Philadelphia Athletics and Chicago White Sox. Brock holds the Fall Classic record for stolen bases in a single series (7 in both 1967 and 1968).

On the Cardinals' career lists, Brock ranks first in stolen bases (888 – Vince Coleman is second with 549); second in games played (2,289), at-bats (9,125), runs (1,427) and hits (2,713); third in doubles (434) and total bases (3,776); fourth in triples (121); sixth in walks (681); and ninth in RBI (814). His 21 career leadoff home runs are the most in club annals.

Brock has remained active in baseball since retiring as a player following the 1979 season. He worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984; was a base-running consultant for the Minnesota Twins in 1987, Los Angeles Dodgers in 1988 and Montreal Expos in 1993; and has served as a special instructor for the Cardinals (base running and outfield play) since 1995.

The six-time N.L. All-Star was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 1985 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014. He was voted the left fielder on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005.

WHITEY HERZOG

MANAGER

24

FULL NAME: Dorrel Norman Elvert Herzog
BORN: 11/9/1931 at New Athens, Illinois
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1980-90
NUMBER RETIRED: 2010

Baseball in St. Louis was reborn in the 1980s under Whitey Herzog.

A native of New Athens, Ill., in the Metro East area of St. Louis, Herzog managed the Cardinals from 1980 to 1990. He ranks third in franchise history with 822 victories – trailing only Tony La Russa (1,408) and Red Schoendienst (1,041) – and his teams won three National League pennants and the 1982 World Series.

Hand-picked by club president August Busch Jr., Herzog took over the Redbirds on June 9, 1980. Two months later, Herzog turned over his on-field managerial duties to become general manager and have more direct involvement in player personnel. He assumed the dual role of field manager and general manager in October. At the winter meetings that December, Herzog began to transform the Cardinals with three blockbuster trades involving 21 players. He envisioned a team built on speed and defense in spacious Busch Stadium.

St. Louis posted the best record in the N.L. in 1981 but finished second in the Eastern Division in both halves of the strike-interrupted season and did not make the playoffs. Herzog relinquished his general manager duties on Opening Day of the 1982 season. The Cardinals went on to win the World Series with a thrilling seven-game victory over the Milwaukee Brewers. It marked the franchise's first championship in 15 years.

Two more pennants followed in 1985 and 1987. Meanwhile, fans flocked to Busch Stadium to watch the Cardinals' entertaining style of play that became known as "Whiteyball." In Herzog's eight full seasons as skipper, St. Louis drew at least 2.4 million spectators annually while topping the 3-million plateau for the first two times in club annals (1987 and 1989). Herzog, who valued his sterling relationship with Busch, resigned July 5, 1990, less than a year after Busch died, and did not manage again.

Before coming to St. Louis, Herzog managed the Texas Rangers (1973), California Angels (1974 on an interim basis) and Kansas City Royals (1975-79). The Royals won three straight American League Western Division titles from 1976 to 1978 but fell to the New York Yankees in the League Championship Series all three times.

Herzog's lifetime managerial record was 1,281-1,125, a .532 winning percentage. His win total ranks 35th on baseball's all-time list through 2014. He was named the 1982 Major League Manager of the Year and 1985 N.L. Manager of the Year. The charismatic "White Rat" also spent time as a big league coach, farm system director and scout and briefly served as general manager of the Angels in 1993 and 1994.

Primarily an outfielder during an eight-year big-league playing career, Herzog batted .257 with 25 home runs and 172 RBI for the Washington Senators (1956-58), Kansas City Athletics (1958-60), Baltimore Orioles (1961-62) and Detroit Tigers (1963).

As a minor leaguer with the McAlester (Okla.) Rockets in 1949, Herzog was christened with the name "Whitey" by sportscaster Bill Speith for his light-colored hair.

Herzog was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2010 by the Veterans Committee. Two days before the enshrinement ceremonies July 25, Cardinals chairman Bill DeWitt Jr. announced that Herzog's number 24 would be retired by the organization. Herzog wore No. 3 in 1980, but infielder Ken Oberkfell gave up No. 24 after the season and Herzog took it. Herzog was voted the manager on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

BRUCE SUTTER
PITCHER

42

FULL NAME: Howard Bruce Sutter
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 190 BATS: Right THROWS: Right
BORN: 1/8/53 at Lancaster, Pennsylvania
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1981-84
NUMBER RETIRED: 2006

Bruce Sutter was a pioneer whose journey landed him in Cooperstown.

The right-handed lights-out closer, who made the split-fingered fastball famous, was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2006. He became the fourth reliever enshrined into baseball's hallowed ground, following Hoyt Wilhelm (1985), Rollie Fingers (1992) and Dennis Eckersley (2004). Sutter was the first player never to start a game to be selected.

Sutter pitched for the Cardinals from 1981 to 1984. Acquired from the Chicago Cubs on Dec. 9, 1980, in exchange for first baseman Leon Durham, third baseman Ken Reitz and minor-league third baseman Ty Waller, Sutter proved to be a key acquisition for general manager and manager Whitey Herzog in his transformation of the Cardinals from underachievers to World Champions.

During the strike-shortened 1981 season, Sutter saved 25 games – the most by a St. Louis pitcher since the save became an officially recognized statistic in 1969. Chants of "Bruuuuuce!" bellowed throughout Busch Stadium every time he ran in from the bullpen. Sutter recorded 36 saves in 1982 and struck out Gorman Thomas of the Milwaukee Brewers to wrap up Game 7 of the World Series.

Sutter had 45 saves in 1985 to tie the Major League record – set by Dan Quisenberry of the Kansas City Royals two years earlier – that since has been eclipsed. The Cardinals elected not to re-sign Sutter after that season, and he moved on to the Atlanta Braves. He subsequently was hampered by shoulder problems that led to his retirement following the 1988 campaign at the age of 35.

Struggling in the minor leagues with Class-A Quincy (Ill.) in 1973, Sutter learned the revolutionary split-fingered pitch from former Cardinals' right-hander Fred Martin, then a Chicago minor-league pitching coach. The pitch, an offshoot of the forkball that Sutter was suited to throw because of his long fingers, aptly was described as "a fastball that winds up like a dead fish" because of its wicked forward spin.

By 1976, Sutter was in the big leagues with the Cubs. He won the 1979 N.L. Cy Young Award after amassing 37 saves and a 2.22 ERA with 110 strikeouts in 101.3 innings pitched. He was only the third reliever to be so honored, following Mark Marshall of the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1974 and Sparky Lyle of the New York Yankees in 1977.

In 12 major-league seasons, Sutter totaled 300 saves to rank third on baseball's all-time list at the time of his retirement and tied for 25th through 2014. He worked more than one inning for 188 of his rescues and surpassed 100 innings pitched in a season on five occasions, with one more year at 99. Sutter led the Senior Circuit in saves in 1979, 1980, 1981, 1982 and 1984. He was a six-time All-Star – appearing in four games and earning two wins (1978 and 1979) and two saves (1980 and 1981) while not allowing a run – and received the Rolaids Relief Man Award four times.

Sutter's four-year St. Louis save total of 127 established a franchise record and now ranks fourth behind Jason Isringhausen (217), Lee Smith (160) and Todd Worrell (129). Sutter was voted the relief pitcher on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

BORN: 11/9/35 at Omaha, Nebraska
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1959-75
NUMBER RETIRED: 1975

Bob Gibson ranks as the greatest pitcher in Cardinals' history. A glance at the record book supports the claim. On the franchise's career lists, the right-hander is first in wins (251), complete games (255), shutouts (56), innings pitched (3,884.1) and strikeouts (3,117). He is second in games pitched (528) and tied for ninth in ERA (2.91).

An outstanding athlete, Gibson played with the Harlem Globetrotters before arriving in St. Louis to stay in 1961. Three years later, he posted a 19-12 record with a 3.01 ERA in helping the Cardinals win the National League pennant. After losing Game 2 of the World Series to the New York Yankees, Gibson posted complete-game victories in Game 5 (5-2 in 10 innings) and Game 7 (7-5) and earned Series Most Valuable Player honors.

Gibson was on his way to another banner season in 1967 when a line drive off the bat of Pittsburgh Pirates' outfielder Roberto Clemente on July 15 broke Gibson's right leg. He was sidelined 52 days but returned to pitch the N.L. pennant clincher against the Philadelphia Phillies on Sept. 18. In the Cardinals' World Series victory over the Boston Red Sox, Gibson went 3-0 with a 1.00 ERA, three complete games and 26 strikeouts to again be named series MVP.

The postseason dominance was a sign of things to come. In 1968, Gibson authored the greatest season by a pitcher in modern history. His 1.12 ERA established an all-time record for 300 or more innings. Gibson posted a 22-9 record with league-leading totals of 13 shutouts and 268 strikeouts. During one stretch, he surrendered merely two earned runs over 95 innings. Gibson was named the N.L. Cy Young Award winner and MVP. For an encore, Gibson set a record with 17 strikeouts in Game 1 of the World Series against the Detroit Tigers (a 4-0 victory). He pitched two more complete games (winning Game 4 by the score of 10-1 before losing Game 7 by a 4-1 margin) to run his streak to a record eight straight distance-going performances. Gibson totaled 35 strikeouts in the three games to establish a Fall Classic standard.

Gibson won his second Cy Young Award in 1970 on the strength of a 23-7 record and 3.12 ERA. He fired a no-hitter against Pittsburgh on Aug. 14, 1971, winning 11-0 at Three Rivers Stadium, and became the second pitcher in baseball history to record 3,000 career strikeouts July 17, 1974 (following Walter Johnson of the Washington Senators).

Accompanying his blazing fastball and pinpoint control was an intense demeanor. Gibson was a complete pitcher, socking 24 home runs and winning nine Gold Glove Awards. The nine-time N.L. All-Star was a first-ballot National Baseball Hall of Fame inductee in 1981 and an inaugural member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014. He was selected to the Major League Baseball All-Century team in 1999 and voted the starting pitcher on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005.

"Gibby" served as pitching coach for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84) and bullpen coach for St. Louis (1995). He also has done some broadcasting and has been a special instructor for the Cardinals since 1996.

ROGERS HORNSBY

SECOND BASEMAN/MANAGER

FULL NAME: Rogers Hornsby

HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 175 BATTED: Right THREW: Right

BORN: 4/27/1896 at Winters, Texas

DIED: 1/5/1963 at Chicago, Illinois

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1915-26, 1933

NUMBER RETIRED: 1997 (The Cardinals did not have numbers on their uniforms during Hornsby's tenure.)

Since 1900, only two players have batted .400 on three occasions – Ty Cobb and Rogers Hornsby. And only two players have won multiple Triple Crowns – Ted Williams and Hornsby.

Primarily a second baseman during his 23-year career, Hornsby batted .401 in 1922, .403 in 1925 and .424 (a modern-day record) in 1924. He is the lone player in Cardinals' history to reach the coveted plateau. Hornsby led the National League in batting six consecutive seasons from 1920 to 1925, compiling a .397 average during that span. From 1921 to 1925, his average was .402, making him the only player ever to bat .400 over a five-year period.

Arguably the greatest right-handed batter of all time, Hornsby won the Triple Crown in 1922 and 1925. The first time, he batted .401 with 42 home runs (then an N.L. record) and 152 RBI while setting club records that still stand of 141 runs, 250 hits, 450 total bases, a .756 slugging percentage and a 33-game hitting streak. The second time, Hornsby had a .403 average with 39 homers and 139 RBI en route to being named the N.L. Most Valuable Player.

"The Rajah" spent the first 12 years of his career in St. Louis, leading the league in slugging percentage seven times; total bases six times; hits, doubles and RBI four times; runs three times; triples and home runs twice; and walks once. He was well known for refusing to go to movies because he thought the "strain" of watching the screen in darkness would hinder his eyesight.

On June 1, 1925, Hornsby took over as manager of the Cardinals, replacing Branch Rickey. Hornsby continued in the dual role in 1926 and piloted the club to an 89-65 record and its first-ever World Championship, a seven-game victory over the New York Yankees. He tagged out Babe Ruth attempting to steal second base for the final out of Game 7, calling the play that clinched the 3-2 victory "the biggest thrill of my baseball career."

An outspoken individual, Hornsby at times was critical of owner Sam Breadon. Eventually, Breadon had enough, and on Dec. 26, 1926, Hornsby was traded to the New York Giants for infielder Frankie Frisch (who had had a falling out with his manager, John McGraw) and pitcher Jimmy Ring.

Hornsby subsequently played for and managed the Boston Braves (1928) and Chicago Cubs (1929-32), winning a second MVP Award in 1929, before returning to the Cardinals in 1933. His second stint, however, lasted just three months before Hornsby was released to become manager of the cross-town Browns. He remained in the Browns' dugout until midway through the 1937 season. Hornsby returned to manage the Browns for the first two months of the 1952 campaign before moving on to the Cincinnati Reds for roughly a season and a half.

On the Cardinals' career lists, Hornsby ranks first in batting average (.359), second in triples (143), third in hits (2,110), fourth in runs (1,089) and total bases (3,342), fifth in doubles (367), seventh in home runs (193) and walks (660), ninth in at-bats (5,881), 10th in RBI (806) and tied for 10th in games played (1,580). His 30 career inside-the-park home runs are the most in club annals.

Hornsby, whose lifetime batting average of .358 is the highest of any right-handed batter and second only to Cobb's .366 among all players, was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1942. He was selected to the Major League Baseball All-Century team in 1999 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

AUGUST A. BUSCH JR.

PRESIDENT

85

FULL NAME: August Anheuser Busch, Jr.
BORN: 3/28/1899 at St. Louis, Missouri
DIED: 9/29/89 at St. Louis, Missouri
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1953-89
NUMBER RETIRED: 1984

August A. Busch Jr.'s reign as president of the Cardinals was marked by success on and off the field. Between 1953 and 1989, the Cardinals won three World Championships (1964, 1967 and 1982) and three additional National League pennants (1968, 1985 and 1987). They also forged the reputation of having the classiest organization in Major League Baseball.

Busch purchased the franchise from Fred Saigh on Feb. 20, 1953. Busch was president of Anheuser-Busch brewery, which benefited from the acquisition of the ball club. Although he didn't devote a tremendous amount of time to baseball-related matters early on, by the 1960s Busch had grown tired of the Cardinals routinely finishing no higher than the middle of the pack in the N.L.

After winning the 1964 World Series over the New York Yankees, Busch was instrumental in the building of Busch Stadium II. The $26 million ballpark opened May 12, 1966, with a 4-3 victory over the Atlanta Braves in 12 innings and became the foundation of a rejuvenated downtown. In 1967, the Cardinals surpassed 2,000,000 in home attendance for the first time in franchise history.

Busch retired as leader of the brewery in 1975, handing over control to his son, August III. The Cardinals failed to win during the 1970s, leaving Busch anxious for the ball club to return to prominence. He made arguably his best baseball decision June 9, 1980, when he hired Whitey Herzog as manager. Busch and Herzog enjoyed a sterling relationship that played a major role in the Cardinals' renewed success. Home attendance soared, with the club drawing 3,000,000-plus fans in both 1987 and 1989.

Throughout his ownership of the Cardinals, "Gussie" was one of the city of St. Louis' most-popular citizens. He was a regular at home games, and on special occasions would ride around the stadium atop a Budweiser wagon pulled by a team of signature Anheuser-Busch Clydesdales.

The Cardinals retired the number 85 in Busch's honor in conjunction with his 85th birthday in 1984. He died Sept. 29, 1989, at the age of 90. August III subsequently served as chief executive until Anheuser-Busch sold the club to the current ownership group March 21, 1996. August Jr. was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

JACK BUCK
BROADCASTER

FULL NAME: John Francis Buck
BORN: 8/21/1924 at Holyoke, Massachusetts
DIED: 6/18/2002 at St. Louis, Missouri
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1954-2001
NUMBER RETIRED: 2002

He never swung a bat or threw a pitch, yet Jack Buck ranks as one of the most popular individuals ever associated with the Cardinals – perhaps the most popular.

Buck served as the "Voice of the Cardinals" on KMOX Radio from 1954 to 2001. He was behind the microphone for some of the franchise's most-memorable moments: Bob Gibson's no-hitter in 1971, Lou Brock's 105th stolen base in 1974 and Mark McGwire's 61st home run in 1998. And his legendary call of Ozzie Smith's game-winning home run in Game 5 of the 1985 National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers, when Buck told St. Louis fans to "Go crazy, folks! Go crazy," still sends chills up Cardinals' fans spines every time it is replayed.

Through it all, Buck's signature phrase after every Cardinals' victory was "That's a winner."

From 1954 to 1969, Buck worked alongside another legend, Harry Caray, to form what is widely regarded as the best baseball broadcast duo ever assembled. From 1972 to 2001, Buck teamed with former Cardinals' third baseman Mike Shannon, and the pair became as synonymous with St. Louis baseball as Stan Musial and Bob Gibson. Beginning in 1991, Buck had the pleasure of calling games with his son, Joe, who now is the lead baseball and football announcer for FOX Sports television.

Buck received the Ford C. Frick Award from the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1987 and was an inaugural member of the Cardinals' Hall of Fame in 2014.

There was more to Buck than Cardinals' baseball. He broadcast seven World Series for CBS Radio. His most-famous non-St. Louis call came in Game 1 of the 1988 Fall Classic when an injured Kirk Gibson hit a game-winning pinch-hit homer for the Dodgers against the Oakland A's. "Unbelievable!" Buck exclaimed. "I don't believe what I just saw." Buck was CBS television's lead play-by-play announcer in 1990 and 1991.

Buck enjoyed a distinguished football broadcasting career, as well. He was the radio voice of Monday Night Football for CBS from 1978 to 1995, working with Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Hank Stram. Buck called one of the most famous games ever, the 1967 Ice Bowl between the Dallas Cowboys and Green Bay Packers, for CBS television. Buck, whose total of 17 Super Bowl broadcasts is the most of any announcer, received the Pete Rozelle Award from the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996.

In addition, Buck announced basketball and hockey over the course of his career and also worked with Chris Schenkel on the Pro Bowler's Tour. Outside of sports, he served as the original host of "At Your Service" on KMOX, a program that essentially started the phenomenon of talk radio.

Buck's popularity extended well beyond his trademark gravelly voice. Fans from coast to coast, but particularly those in St. Louis, knew him as a tremendously generous man who made time for everyone. He was named St. Louis' Citizen of the Year in 2000 for his contributions to the community. Late in his life, Buck became interested in writing poetry, and he authored a piece called "For America" that he read to the crowd at Busch Stadium prior to the Cardinals' first game following the Sept. 11, 2001, terrorist attacks. Buck passed away June 18, 2002, and some 10,000 fans attended his public memorial service at Busch Stadium.

HALL OF FAME MANAGERS

A key factor in the Cardinals' consistent success has been the leadership of outstanding field managers. For proof, look no further than the franchise's 10 winningest skippers – Eight of them Hall of Fame members.

While it is recognized that some of the managers earned induction into baseball's ultimate shrine for their accomplishments away from St. Louis or for their playing careers, the fact remains that the Cardinals have regularly employed Cooperstown-worthy individuals.

Following is a thumbnail sketch of each of the eight Hall of Famers, listed by victories in a St. Louis uniform:

TONY LA RUSSA

1st – 1,408 wins / 1996-2011 / Hall of Fame 2014

La Russa became the winningest manager in franchise history August 31, 2007, surpassing Red Schoendienst with No. 1,042. The Cardinals won eight division titles, three National League pennants as well as the 2006 and 2011 World Series in his 16-year tenure, the longest in franchise history. Prior to the Cardinals, La Russa managed the Chicago White Sox (1979-86) and Oakland A's (1986-95). Over 33 seasons, he amassed 2,728 victories, ranking third in Major League Baseball history behind Connie Mack (3,731) and John McGraw (2,763). La Russa managed 5,097 games, second to Mack (7,755). La Russa is the only manager to win multiple pennants in both leagues and one of just two to win a World Championship in both, following Sparky Anderson. La Russa's 70 postseason victories (50 with St. Louis, 19 with Oakland and 1 with Chicago) rank second to Joe Torre's 84 among big league skippers.

RED SCHOENDIENST

Schoendienst served as a coach on the Cardinals' 1964 World Championship team and was named manager when Johnny Keane resigned at the conclusion of the season. Schoendienst piloted St. Louis to a World Series victory in 1967 followed by another National League pennant in 1968 and went on to occupy the manager's office for 12 years. After a stint as coach with the Oakland A's in 1977 and 1978, Schoendienst came back to St. Louis as a coach from 1979 to 1995. He filled in as interim manager in 1980 and 1990. Previously, Schoendienst played for the Cardinals from 1945 to 1956 and again from 1961 to 1963, becoming one of the best hitting and fielding second basemen of all time. A 10-time National League All-Star, Schoendienst socked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning of the 1950 Mid-Summer Classic.

WHITEY HERZOG

3rd – 822 wins / 1980-90 / Hall of Fame 2010

Baseball in St. Louis was reborn in the 1980s under Herzog. His teams won three National League pennants (1982, 1985 and 1987) and the 1982 World Series, the franchise's first championship in 15 years. Herzog took over the Redbirds on June 9, 1980, and that December, in the dual role of field manager and general manager, he began to transform the ball club with three blockbuster trades involving 21 players. Fans subsequently flocked to Busch Stadium to watch the Cardinals' entertaining style of play that became known as "Whiteyball." In Herzog's eight full seasons as skipper, St. Louis drew at least 2.4 million spectators annually while topping the 3-million plateau for the first two times in club annals (1987 and 1989). Before coming to St. Louis, Herzog managed the Texas Rangers (1973), California Angels (1974 on an interim basis) and Kansas City Royals (1975-79).

HALL OF FAME MANAGERS

BILLY SOUTHWORTH

4th – 620 wins / 1929, 1940-45 / Hall of Fame 2009

Southworth piloted Cardinals' teams that won the World Series in 1942 and 1944, sandwiched around a third National League pennant in 1943. St. Louis won a franchise-best 106 games in 1942, followed by back-to-back 105-win seasons, marking the best three-year run in team annals. Furthermore, a Redbird won the N.L. Most Valuable Player Award each of those years: pitcher Mort Cooper in 1942, outfielder Stan Musial in 1943 and shortstop Marty Marion in 1944. Southworth's winning percentage of .642 tops the Cardinals' record book. After leaving St. Louis, Southworth managed the Boston Braves from 1946 to 1951, capturing the N.L. pennant in 1948. His lifetime winning percentage of .597 (1,044-704 record) ranks fifth on baseball's all-time list, trailing Joe McCarthy (.615), Jim Mutrie (.611), Charlie Comiskey (.608) and Frank Selee (.598).

FRANKIE FRISCH

T5th – 458 wins / 1933-38 / Hall of Fame 1947

The 1934 Cardinals – the collection of swashbuckling players dubbed the Gas House Gang – won the World Series with a roster that featured seven future Hall of Famers. The leader of the posse was Frisch, who filled the two-fold role of second baseman and manager for six seasons. The 1931 National League Most Valuable Player posted a winning record in each of his four full campaigns, recording 95 victories in 1934 and 96 the following year. Frisch, who played in the major leagues for 19 years with the New York Giants (1919-26) and Cardinals (1927-37), finished with 2,880 career hits and a .316 batting average, the highest ever for a switch-hitter. He played on two World Championship teams with each organization and was a member of the first three N.L. All-Star teams from 1933 to 1935. Frisch later managed the Pittsburgh Pirates (1940-46) and Chicago Cubs (1949-51).

BRANCH RICKEY

T5th – 458 wins / 1919-25 / Hall of Fame 1967

Certainly, Rickey is most known for his role in Jackie Robinson breaking Major League Baseball's color barrier and for creating and sustaining the first significant farm system. But during his quarter-century as manager and vice president of the Cardinals from 1917 to 1942, Rickey transformed the once-downtrodden franchise into a bona fide winner. With Rickey as manager, St. Louis finished as high as third in the National League in 1921 and 1922, but a foundation was being laid that led to the franchise's first four World Championships (1926, 1931, 1934 and 1942) and two additional N.L. pennants (1928 and 1930). Rickey, who previously was manager of the St. Louis Browns from 1913 to 1915, went on to hold executive positions with the Brooklyn Dodgers (1943-50) and Pittsburgh Pirates (1950-55). He handpicked Robinson to become the first African American to play in the big leagues in 1947.

HALL OF FAME MANAGERS

JOE TORRE

8th – 351 wins / 1990-95 / Hall of Fame 2014

Torre was a standout catcher, first baseman and third baseman for the Cardinals from 1969 to 1974 and later manager during a time of transition. In 1971, he topped the National League with a .363 batting average and 137 RBI en route to being named Most Valuable Player. Torre batted .297 over the course of his 18-year career. Following managerial stints with the New York Mets (1977-81) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84), Torre returned to St. Louis to replace Whitey Herzog. He piloted the Cardinals to three winning seasons, including a second-place finish in the N.L. Eastern Division in 1991. Toward the end of his tenure, Anheuser-Busch made plans to sell the franchise, and Torre moved on to the New York Yankees (1996-2007). His Bronx teams made the playoffs in each of his 12 seasons and won four World Series: 1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000. Torre subsequently managed the Los Angeles Dodgers (2008 to 2010). His 84 postseason victories are the most all time.

MILLER HUGGINS

9th – 346 wins / 1913-17 / Hall of Fame 1964

Like Joe Torre, Huggins enjoyed his ultimate success as manager of the New York Yankees. A second baseman for the Cardinals from 1910 to 1916, Huggins took on managerial duties as well in 1913. The following year, St. Louis wound up in third place in the National League with an 81-72 record, its best finish since 1891. Huggins went on to manage the Yankees from 1918 to 1929, winning the franchise's first World Series in 1923. Under Huggins, New York won six American League pennants and two additional World Championships (1927 and 1928) with their Murderer's Row lineup that included Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig. It was Huggins who inserted Gehrig into the starting lineup on June 2, 1925, beginning his streak of 2,130 consecutive games played.

The two non-Hall of Famers on the Cardinals' top 10 managerial wins list are Eddie Dyer and Johnny Keane.

Dyer ranks seventh with 446 wins after piloting the Cardinals from 1946 to 1950. His first team, which welcomed back players who served in World War II, captured the franchise's third World Championship in five seasons, and each of his next three squads finished second in the National League. Dyer's .578 winning percentage (446-325) is the second-best in franchise history among skippers who managed more than two seasons, behind Southworth. Dyer did not manage again after leaving St. Louis.

Keane was at the helm from 1961 to 1964 and ranks 10th with 317 victories. The 1964 Redbirds were 11 games out of first place in the National League on Aug. 23 but proceeded to go 28-11 the rest of the way. Combined with an unraveling by the Philadelphia Phillies, St. Louis won the pennant on the last day of the season and went on to win the World Series for their first title in 18 years. Keane resigned after the World Series after rumors of him being fired had begun in August. He was hired by the Yankees, who the Cardinals had just defeated in the Fall Classic, and managed New York in 1965 and for the first 20 games of 1966.

Five other individuals who served as manager of the Cardinals are Hall of Famers: Roger Bresnahan (1909-12), Roger Connor (1896), Rogers Hornsby (1925-26), Bill McKechnie (1928-29) and Charles "Kid" Nichols (1904-05).

CARDINALS HALL OF FAME

The Cardinals Hall of Fame was established in January of 2014 to honor those individuals who have had a significant impact on the tradition-rich franchise.

Twenty-two individuals were automatically selected for the Hall of Fame in conjunction with its formation. Members of the inaugural class included those Cardinals enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame, primarily as members of the Cardinals organization, and those individuals whose numbers have been retired by the franchise. (See list below.)

Outfielder Jim Edmonds, shortstop/manager Marty Marion, outfielder Willie McGee and player-turned-broadcaster Mike Shannon subsequently made up the Class of 2014, which was announced in April and enshrined last August.

The Class of 2015 will be announced in April.

To be eligible for induction, an individual must have played for the Cardinals for at least three seasons and have been retired from Major League Baseball for at least three years. Eligible players are divided into two categories – modern players and veteran players. A veteran is a player who retired more than 40 years prior to the induction year.

Annually, the Cardinals convene a "red-ribbon committee" of experts to select six to 10 players to be placed on a ballot on Cardinals.com, where fans have the opportunity to vote for a period of six weeks. The two players with the most online votes will be inducted. The committee also picks a veteran player to be inducted. In addition, the Cardinals organization may choose from time to time to induct an important figure in franchise history, such as a coach, broadcaster or member of the front office, without a vote or committee selection.

Each member of the Cardinals Hall of Fame is permanently recognized in the Hall of Fame Gallery, located on the second floor of Cardinals Nation, just outside the entrance to the Cardinals Museum. The Hall of Fame Gallery is free and open to the public.

QUALIFICATIONS AND REGULATIONS

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A BATTING CHAMPION:

Highest batting average and 502 or more plate appearances.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A PITCHING CHAMPION:

Lowest ERA and 162 or more innings pitched.

PLAYER LIMITS:

40 until opening day, when the number must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it again may become 40.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A SAVE:

A relief pitcher shall be credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

1. He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and
2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
   a. He enters the game with lead of no more than three runs, and pitches for at least one inning, or
   b. He enters the game with potential tying run either on base, at-bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
   c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE:

Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED-RUN-AVERAGE:

Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, then divide the number by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE:

Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

DETERMINING ON-BASE AVERAGE:

Add the total of hits, walks and hit-by-pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit-by-pitches and sacrifice flies.

DETERMINING SLUGGING AVERAGE:

Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

TRADING REGULATIONS:

Trades may be made with any other major league club in the period from the end of the championship season through July 31 without waivers. Waivers are required, however:

1. If the assignment is to another major league club: From August 1 to the end of the season.
2. If assignment is to a minor league club, with right of recall, at any time after three years from the date the player first reported to a major league club during a championship season.
3. If assigned to a minor league club without right of recall, after acquiring three years service: At any time during the year.
4. If assigned to a minor league club, without right of recall, at any time prior to acquiring three years of service, special waivers are required between September 1 and the opening of the following season. If player is claimed, request may be withdrawn. If no claims are made, club has 7-day period in which to make assignment to minor leagues.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A "ROOKIE":

A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER:

Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP:

Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES HITTING STREAK:

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES PLAYING STREAK:

A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

REGULATION GAME:

A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

DISABLED LISTS:

15-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is 15 calendar days, beginning on the day after the player's last game. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is 60 calendar days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of 40 players.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING

RADIO

KMOX Radio begins their 57th year overall and fifth consecutive as the Voice of the Cardinals. The station's 50,000-watt signal at night can reach more than 40 states and parts of Canada. The station carried Cardinals games for 52 years through 2005 and returned as the team's flagship station in 2011. The club boasts a radio network of 125 stations covering nine states (Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri, Oklahoma, Tennessee). KMOX will broadcast all 162 of the 2015 games and 18 of the team's spring training games. Mike Shannon and partner John Rooney will continue to provide play-by-play commentary.

MIKE SHANNON

Mike Shannon will be broadcasting his 44th season on the Cardinals radio network. Throughout his years as a broadcastor for the Cardinals, Shannon has also made appearances for the Cardinals television broadcasts, including as a pre-game analyst for FSN Midwest. He also has worked with NBC's Baseball Game of the Week and called Cardinals football games on radio.

A St. Louis native, Shannon broke into the big leagues with the Cardinals in 1962 and became the regular right fielder during the 1964 World Championship season. During the 1964 Series opener vs. New York, he hit a game-tying, two-run homer as St. Louis went on to defeat the Yankees in seven games. In 1967 Shannon was moved to third base to make room for newly acquired right fielder Roger Maris, as the Cardinals went on to win two straight National League pennants in 1967 and '68 as well as the 1967 World Series.

Mike's career was cut short by a kidney disease in 1970. He joined the Cardinals front office in 1971 as assistant director of promotions and sales and entered the broadcast booth in 1972, where he has remained. His many years with the organization give Shannon a unique insight in his commentary. He was honored at the end of the 2007 season for his 50 years of service with the club.

Shannon has received numerous awards and honors throughout his career. A gifted athlete, he was a High School All-American football player, and in 1957 was named the Missouri prep Player of the Year in both basketball and football - the only player ever to receive both in the same year. He was named St. Louis Ambassador's 1993 Sportsman of the Year, St. Louis Variety Club 1996 Champion for Kids and received the 1985 Emmy Award for Sports Broadcasting, St. Louis chapter. In 1999, Shannon was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of his on air career and as a player on the field, and in May 2013 the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame named Mike a Missouri Sports Legend, the 26th such honor given. In 2009 he was selected to be a member of the Academy of Missouri Squires and was honored as St. Louis Press Club Media Person of the Year in 2010. He was inducted into the Cardinals Hall of Fame in 2014.

Mike, 75, resides in Illinois. He, and his late wife, Judy, have six children, 18 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

JOHN ROONEY

John Rooney is in his 10th season of broadcasting Cardinals games. A Richmond, Mo. native, Rooney came to St. Louis from the Chicago White Sox where he spent 18 years (1988-2005) - one in TV followed by 17 seasons in the radio booth. The Cardinals World Championship crown in 2006 gave John the privalege of working with the World Champion team in back-to-back seasons, following the White Sox win in 2005.

Rooney, 60, called his first major league game in 1983 with Shannon and Hall of Fame Broadcaster Jack Buck during a three-game series between the Cardinals and host Cincinnati Reds. He began his baseball broadcasting career at the class AAA level, spending the 1981-82 seasons with the Oklahoma 89ers and the 1983-84 campaigns with the Louisville Redbirds.

John juggled two stints in the 1980's as a sports reporter for KMOX around his baseball broadcasting and serving as the voice of Missouri Tigers football and basketball on radio and TV for 20 seasons. Rooney's National Assignments over the years include the MLB Division Series, League Championship Series and World Series, Saturday Afternoon and Sunday Night Baseball for CBS Radio, the Fox TV Saturday Baseball Game Of The Week and ESPN Radio Saturday and Sunday night baseball assignments. Rooney has worked 20 MLB All Star Games on National Radio, called NFL games on CBS and Sports USA Radio and has broadcast 19 NCAA Tournaments on the National Radio Network, including 10 National Championship Games. Over the years Rooney has been an announcer on various college basketball telecasts including the Big 10, Conference USA, Big East and has been the Voice of the Missouri Valley Conference telecasts for the past four seasons. He has broadcast College Football Bowl Games including the Cotton, Orange, Fiesta, Sun, Independence and Capital One Bowls.

Rooney was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in February 2004. He and his wife, Susan, have two daughters: Colleen and Rachel.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING

TELEVISION

FOX Midwest, a regional sports network, is the television home for Cardinals broadcasts again in 2015. The network will carry all non-nationally broadcast games and 15 Cardinals spring training games in 2015. Play-by-play and color commentary will be provided by Dan McLaughlin, Al Hrabosky, Rick Horton and Tim McCarver, with Pat Parris and Jim Hayes as pregame and postgame hosts and in-game reporters.

RICK HORTON

Rick Horton will continue his work as a broadcaster on Cardinals telecasts for a 12th season. He will provide play-by-play and color commentary on FOX Sports Midwest, as well as continue to provide pre-game and post-game analysis. Horton provided color commentary on all KSDK broadcasts during the 2007-2010 seasons, as well as working as a baseball play-by-play announcer & analyst and Cardinals Live pre- and post-game analyst for FOX Sports Midwest. He provided color commentary on KPLR telecasts from 2004-'06. Horton has also filled in on Cardinals Radio Network since 1997.

A former left-handed pitcher for the Cardinals, Rick spent seven years in the Major Leagues, playing for St. Louis, Los Angeles and the Chicago White Sox. He made his Major League debut with the Cardinals in 1984 and participated in the 1985 and 1987 World Series with the Redbirds and won the Series in 1988 while with the Dodgers. Horton was both a starter and relief pitcher for the club and had one of his best years in 1987 when he went 8-3 in 67 games, pitching 125 innings. In 1991, he spent the season as a pitching coach in the Cleveland Indians minor league system.

After retiring from his Major League playing career, Horton remained in the St. Louis area where he has been active in the Greater St. Louis Area Fellowship of Christian Athletes, serving as the Director of the St. Louis FCA since 1993. Horton has assisted with Baseball Chapel with the Cardinals and he has also worked with the St. Louis Rams football team in leading chapel and Bible studies. He received the National Sportsmanship Award in 2008, the Mid American Emmy Award for Sports Broadcasting in 2011 and he was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 2014.

Horton, 55, and his wife, Ann, reside in St. Louis and have two children, Jen and Drew.

AL HRABOSKY

Al Hrabosky will be calling games on Cardinals telecasts for his 31st season. It marks his 19th straight season in his role as analyst on FOX Sports Midwest. He began working as a commentator on telecasts for the team in 1985.

Hrabosky made a smooth transition from one of St. Louis' best-loved athletes, the "Mad Hungarian" of the Cardinals 1970's bullpen, to the broadcast booth. During a 13-year major league career in which he compiled 97 saves and earned Fireman of the Year honors in 1975, Hrabosky already was preparing himself for broadcasting by working as a sportscaster for a St. Louis TV station.

Hrabosky, 65, was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in February 2003, the Fullerton College Hall of Fame in 2004 and the Savanna High School Hall of Fame in 2011. Away from the booth he is active in many charities, including St. Louis Zoo, Angel Arms and FOX Sports Midwest's work with The Mission Continues. He and his wife, June, reside in St. Louis.

TIM McCARVER

Tim McCarver will be in his 2nd year of broadcasting with FOX Sports Midwest as an analyst on select Cardinals telecasts. McCarver worked 28 consecutive MLB postseasons on network television dating back to 1984, providing analysis for a record 23 World Series and 20 All-Star Games. His work earned him three straight Emmy Awards for "Outstanding Sports Event Analyst" (2000-02) and the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum's 2012 Ford C. Frick Award. McCarver teamed with Joe Buck a record 17 seasons as MLB on FOX's lead national baseball broadcast team. No baseball broadcasting tandem called more World Series (15) and All-Star Games (14).

He began his broadcasting career in 1980 and has the distinction of being the only MLB analyst to have worked for all four major broadcast networks. McCarver caught 12 seasons with the Cardinals and played in two All-Star Games (1966, 1967) three LCS (1976-78) and three World Series (1964, 1967, 1968), winning championships in 1964 and 1967. He also played for Philadelphia, Montreal and Boston.

DAN McLAUGHLIN

Dan McLaughlin will be entering his 18th season as the play-by-play voice for Cardinals television broadcasts on FOX Sports Midwest. A St. Louis native, McLaughlin called his first major league game at the age of 23 and his work in 2013 earned him an Emmy Award for outstanding play-by-play. His baseball assignments have included national telecasts of FOX Saturday Baseball. Dan has previously filled in on numerous Cardinals radio broadcasts working alongside Mike Shannon and Hall of Fame announcer Jack Buck, and he continues to produce daily radio and television features along the Cardinals Network and cardinals.com.

During the baseball off-season, McLaughlin has worked play by play of "FOX NFL Sunday" as well as calling college football and basketball for ESPN and FOX Sports. In addition to basketball, McLaughlin has done work as the studio host of St. Louis Blues hockey on both radio and television broadcasts.

A 1996 graduate of Lindenwood University, where he played baseball, Dan began his professional broadcasting career at KMOX Radio and in 2001, he won the A.I.R. Award as St. Louis' best sportscaster. McLaughlin, 41, was inducted into the Vianney High School Hall of Fame in 2005. Away from the booth, he serves on the boards and is active in numerous local charities including "The Dan McLaughlin Golf Tournament" which has raised nearly two million dollars for children with disabilities. He and his wife, Libby, make their home in St. Louis with their son Luke, daughter, Avery, and twins Olivia and Barrett.

BALLPARK VILLAGE

Ballpark Village, located on 10-acres just north of Busch Stadium, is the first master-planned development designed around a new MLB ballpark. The $100 million first phase of Ballpark Village opened in March 2014 and represents one of the top restaurant and entertainment districts in the region. The 100,000 square foot, multi-story project is visible beyond the left center field wall and compliments the energy and excitement of the game day experience.

The first phase of Ballpark Village is anchored by Cardinals Nation, Budweiser Brew House, Fox Sports Midwest Live!, PBR St. Louis – A Cowboy Bar, Howl at the Moon and Drunken Fish. Ballpark Village features five live performance stages, the largest retractable roof of its kind, the biggest indoor TV screen in the Midwest and an outdoor festival space that recreates the infield of the previous Busch Stadium in its exact historical location. Other food and eating locations at The Village include Tengo Hambre, The Fudgery and Jamba Juice.

Cardinals Nation is a 34,000 square foot venue comprised of four key elements: a two-story restaurant and bar, an 8,000 square foot world-class Cardinals Hall of Fame and Museum, a Cardinals Authentics retail store featuring game used memorabilia and a 334-seat roof top deck with spectacular game views and an all-inclusive experience unlike anything in baseball today. The Cardinals Nation restaurant is a high-energy, memorabilia-infused space that sets a new standard for sports-inspired restaurants with three separate patios, two large bars and large flat screen televisions. The Cardinals Nation rooftop seating deck is a ticketed seating location looking into Busch Stadium that includes food and beverage, a complimentary ticket to the Cardinals museum, Busch Stadium audio/visual feeds and access to other areas within Ballpark Village. Cardinals Nation allows Cardinals fans to stay connected to the team year-round.

The new Cardinals Hall of Fame and Museum within Cardinals Nation hosts the largest team-held collection in baseball and is second only to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in terms of size with over 16,000 memorabilia items and hundreds of thousands of archival photographs. With over 8,000 square feet on the second floor of Cardinals Nation, the Museum celebrates the rich history of baseball in St. Louis and the legacy of one of baseball's most storied franchises.

The Cardinals Hall of Fame and Museum opened a special one-year exhibit on the greatest Cardinal of all time, Hall of Famer Stan Musial, on November 21, 2014. The Museum plans to showcase some of its incredible collection by hosting a rotating unique exhibit each year.

The initial class of the Cardinals Hall of Fame was inducted Saturday, August 16, 2014. The plaques that adorn the gallery are located on the second floor of Cardinals Nation just outside the entrance to the Cardinals museum. The Cardinals Hall of Fame is free to the public so fans of all generations can celebrate players that represent the best of the 122-year history of one of baseball's most iconic teams. Above left depicts the inaugural class of inductees consisting of the team's Hall of Famers and retired numbers. To the right is the initial class of indcutees. Additional information on the Cardinals first class of Hall of Fame inductees and the election process can be found on page 365.

At the heart of Ballpark Village is a central gathering place: Fox Sports Midwest Live!. FOX Sports Midwest Live! is a 20,000 square foot entertainment marketplace that features a 40-foot diagonal LED screen, providing St. Louis sports fans with the best sports viewing experiences in the country. Also under the one-of-a kind 100 foot long retractable glass roof is a stage for live concerts, a 200-seat restaurant and a VIP seating area.

FOX Sports Midwest, the television home of the Cardinals, produces more than 200 shows per year in its studio on the second level overlooking FOX Sports Midwest Live!. Studio host, Pat Parris, and former Cardinals outfielder and Cardinals Hall of Fame member, Jim Edmonds, in studio.

Manager Mike Matheny, infielder Kolten Wong and outfileder Jason Heyward engage fans at Ballpark Village.

Cardinals Care...Caring for Kids in the Community

Cardinals Care is the team's community foundation dedicated to improving the lives of children. Since its inception in 1997, Cardinals Care has distributed nearly $22 million to support St. Louis area organizations. They strive to reach under-served youth through ball field construction and maintenance, cash grant distribution, complimentary ticket programs, baseball and health clinics, school programs, charitable auctions and civic involvement. For more information or to make a donation, please go to www.cardinals.com/community or call 314-345-9418.

Redbird Rookies

Redbird Rookies is the Cardinals Care youth development program that supports kids both on and off the baseball field. This special league provides all the uniforms, gloves, bats, balls and other equipment, as well as extensive off-field guidance in the areas of health, education, mentoring and cultural arts. Currently Redbird Rookies has 22 leagues, serving over 4,000 kids in the St. Louis area and parts of rural Missouri and Illinois.

Rookies are invited to attend health fairs (above) where they learn to develop positive habits of eating right and staying active—and they get to hang out with Fredbird (left).

Each Rookie receives free teeth cleaning, vision, hearing, asthma screening and finger printing for Child ID kits.

Player Involvement

Throughout the season, Cardinals players and coaches spend quality time on the home field and out in the St. Louis community bringing smiles to the faces of fans in need.

Trevor Rosenthal (above left) works with a Redbird Rookie, while outfielder Jon Jay (above) spent time showing some excelling Redbird Rookies how to hit, catch, throw and run like the pros.

Fundraising Events

The annual Winter Warm-Up and Jerseys Days are major fundraising initiatives for Cardinals Care which combine an opportunity for the fans to interact with players while donating to a great cause. The Cardinals Care 6K and One Mile Fun Run promotes health and fitness. Thanks to the generous assistance of our players, coaches, staff, volunteers, sponsors and especially our loyal fans, these events continue to be a tremendous success.

Fans can meet past, present and future Cardinals favorites at the Winter Warm-Up held downtown every year during Martin Luther King, Jr. weekend.

The 2014 6k run at Busch Stadium honored Stan Musial and raised over $80,000 for kids.

Neighborhood Ball Fields

In an effort to assist in the revitalization of communities throughout our region, Cardinals Care works with local neighborhoods to identify and fulfill their needs. Building ball fields and establishing baseball leagues gives youth the opportunity to learn to play ball and instills the importance of giving back.

To date Cardinals Care has built and revived 21 ball fields throughout the St. Louis metropolitan area. Thousands of children now have a safe place to practice and play. In June 2013 the new ball field in Berkeley, was dedicated as the Chris Carpenter field (right).

Fredbird's "Doin' it Right" School Program

"Say NO to Drugs! Stay in School! Participate in Sports and Stay Fit!"

These are the key messages conveyed to more than a quarter of a million grade school students in the St. Louis area. Former players Joe Cunningham, Al Hrabosky and Andy Benes, along with Mike Claiborne from the Cardinals broadcaste team join Fredbird to host this traveling, no-cost program that entertains students and reminds them of life's important goals.

Cardinals Alumni Joe Cunningham educates kids during a local School Program (above).

Complimentary Tickets

The Cardinals donate over 45,000 tickets each year to numerous organizations including senior-citizen and community service groups, as well as local schools through their Staight-A, community service and safety programs. Hundreds of area kids who participate in our Community Ticket Program get the chance to experience a Cardinals game.

Cardinals Kids & Varsity Club

These special fan clubs are just for kids and teens. They include special tickets, unique promotional items and end-of-season members-only party at Busch Stadium and much more!

Kids Club members get exclusive access to meet players and even had the opportunity to ask Cardinals Manager Mike Matheny the tough questions — like his favorite ice cream flavor!
